HOUSE-PASSED LABOR BILL IN OHIO'S SENATE

Lower Chamber O.K.'s Curb on Union Activities and Strike Ban.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., June 11—Proposals to outlaw the closed shop in Ohio and place greater responsibility on labor unions went to the senate today with an "approved" tag put on by the house.

Some leaders of the senate predicted that branch would add its approval.

The house also completed enactment of a bill prohibiting strikes by public employes, including school teachers.

The anti-closed shop measure was adopted by the house 86 to 41, while the labor responsibility bill received a 70 to 47 vote in the house.

Requires Voters' O.K.

The resolution by Rep. Charles H Veach (R-Putnam) is in the form of a constitutional amendment which would require final approval by voters next November if it gets the 22 votes needed to pass the senate.

Proposals to change the state constitutional amendment which would require final approval by voters next November if it gets the 22 votes needed to pass the senate.

Proposals to change the state constitution require a three-fifths favorable vote in both chambers. That means 84 to clear the house.

The measure by Rep. William R Van Aken (R-Cuyahoga) bans strikes except by secret majority vote of union members; limits picket lines to two persons; requires union reports on finances to the state and to members; prohibits felons and Communists from holding office, and permit damage suits for losses from secondary strikes and illegal boycotts.

Despite concerted labor opposition to any regulatory legislation, the house completed passage of a bill banning strikes by public employes including school teachers and the senate passed a house measure limiting portal-to-portal pay suits to two years, as in the federal act.

Local Aid Plan Passed

The senate also completed passage of the administration's $30,000,000-a-year local government aid program, except for house concurrence in minor revisions.

The house in turn passed and sent to the senate a $118,600,000 capital improvements program. The measure reappropriated $54,000,000 still unspent from two years ago and sent aside $64,600,000 for new construction.

The senate rejected house changes in a bill designed to aid cities in solving automobile parking problems and named three members to a conference committee to reconcile differences with the lower chamber. House members have yet to be named.

The local government program ran into a temporary snag during senate voting on the series of bills to boost allocations from $21,000,000 last year to some $30,000,000 a year for the current biennium.

The section which would turn over to cities the state's $3,000,000-a-year amusement admissions tax field about Oct. 1 met unexpected defeat by a vote of 16 to 15

Sen. Frank E. Whittemore (R-Summit), majority leader, switched his yes vote to no to be on the prevailing side and enable him to move reconsideration of the vote. The motion was left pending while a recess was taken to permit Republicans to caucus.

After the caucus, the measure was approved 27 to 6.

Truck Hit by Train; Driver, 75, Unhurt

A stake truck was demolished when hit by a westbound New York Central passenger train at the Lincoln avenue crossing yesterday afternoon at 2:15, police report. Arthur L. Woods, 75, of 133 Pennsylvania avenue, owner of the truck, jumped to safety when it stalled on the tracks.

The train was 30 minutes late arriving at Union Depot because of the accident.

Temperatures Near Freezing Hit Midwest

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, June 11—Temperatures fell considerably below normal over the northern great plains and upper Mississippi valley today, with some readings below freezing.

The temperatures fell as low as 33 at Bend, Ore.; 31 at Austin, Nev.; 34 at Williston and Dickinson, N. D., and Chardon, Neb.; 35 at Rapid City, S. D., and 37 at Lewistown, Mont., and Houghton, Mich.

The cold weather was the result of a storm centered over northern Minnesota yesterday which was dwindling today.

Temperatures in the north central states will continue rather cool except for moderately warm readings near the Ohio river.

DILLON DAM PLEA ENTERED

Congress Told Savings of Millions Possible in Case of New Flood.

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 11 — A house appropriations subcommittee was urged today to approve construction funds for Dillon dam, Ohio, as necessary to completion of the Muskingum valley flood control and conservation program.

Proponents appeared before the congressmen with Rep. Griffiths (R-Ohio) who is opposing a proposal of Rep. McGregor (R-Ohio) to kill the project.

William S. Correy, secretary of the Zanesville Chamber of Commerce and William Curfey, president of the Weller Pottery Co., Zanesville, supported contentions of Griffiths that opponents live upriver from the dam and would not benefit by flood control and water conservation.

"Below Dam For It"

"Not a single resident below the dam is against it," Griffiths told the subcommittee.

Curfey and Correy presented detailed charts showing the history of the $200,000,000 Muskingum program started by the state

Rationing May End As U. S. Gets Hike In Sugar Allotment

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 11—Prospects for an end to household sugar rationing by July 1 brightened today as the United States was allotted a bigger share of the world sugar pool.

The international emergency food council, inter-government agency which divides scarce foods among importing areas, granted this country 350,000 tons more than originally had been allotted for this year.

This increase is equivalent to about five pounds a person.

A highly placed agriculture department official said the additional supply should be enough to permit rationing to householders, if not to institutions and to industrial users, to be dropped by the end of this month.

The increased allocation was made possible because the Cuban crop has turned out to be larger than originally forecast and because some countries, particularly France, have announced they will be unable to buy all the Cuban sugar originally allotted them.

The agriculture department official said consumption of sugar so far this year has been at a rate below this country's allocation.

He said he did not know why.

Authority for sugar rationing is scheduled to expire Oct. 31. However, the house banking committee approved a bill yesterday which would end household rationing the day the measure became law.

Marion's Milk Code Scheduled For Probable Future Revision

Marion's milk code, unchanged since 1923, is expected to be in for revamping when the city health board meets July 3. The board will begin discussion of adoption of a new ordinance in keeping with the standard milk code of the U. S. public health service. Advent of more modern equipment during the past 25 years has made it possible for producers to maintain better standards, the board believes.

The code has already been adopted by 27 counties and a number of cities in Ohio, according to Dr. M. M. Weinbaum, city health commissioner. Dr. Weinbaum said the chief result of adoption of the new ordinance would be more frequent inspections and insistance on stricter compliance with the rules. Producers and distributors would be allowed one year after adoption of the ordinance to comply with standards set up.

250 Distributors Listed

About 250 farmers selling milk to Marion distributors would be effected by the new code, according to Dr. J. T. Gruber, city milk inspector. Adoption of the code would probably mean an increase in inspecting personnel, Dr. Gruber pointed out.

Milk inspection is carried out in four stages, Dr. Gruber said. At the farm condition of farm buildings, methods of cooling and handling milk and the physical condition of cows are noted.

Another step known as "platform" inspection is carried out as every can of milk reaches plants to be processed. Samples of milk are taken and the condition of cans is checked. If milk is not good or cans are dirty or rusty, milk is sent back to the farm with a label attached to the can giving the reason for its rejection. If milk is graded below "B" three successive times the permit is cancelled for 10 days.

At plants where milk is processed pasteurization is checked along with cooking, bottling and handling of milk. All other equipment such as pumps and pipes is checked.

Tests are made at the city health board's laboratory from samples of milk taken while it is being delivered. These samples are tested for acidity, butter fat, temperature on delivery, total solids, non-fat solids, water content and bacteria content.

Distributors in Marion are preparing for the stricted enforcement of inspection rules and all but one have begun improvements in their plants.

It is not certain when the new code will be adopted by the board. Discussion may be carried over several meetings. On the schedule after the dairy code has been changed are alterations in the restaurant code for Marion.

Changes in the restaurant code also will be modeled around federal and state approved plans, but discussion of changes to be made have not yet been held.

FLOOD WATERS HEAD TOWARD ST. LOUIS

By The Associated Press

ST. LOUIS, June 11—Pouring over at least a million acres of farmland crests of the flooded Missouri and Mississippi rivers headed toward this river city today leaving behind a scene of destruction in three midwestern states.

The Mississippi began to recede at Quincy, Ill., but Col. W. M. Leaf, district army engineer, warned that the danger was far from over.

He said the crest was nearing the drainage district levee, across from Hannibal, Mo., where some 120,000 additional acres would be affected if the levee gave way. Evacuation of the area was under way.

On the Missouri river some 500,000 acres were flooded in the Glascow-Boonville area where only six levees remained standing—five of which were expected to be washed out at any time.

The Red Cross' midwestern headquarters estimated the number of homeless in Missouri and Illinois at 5,700 with another 16,000 believed to be still washed out in Ottumwa, the Des Moines river valley and other parts of Iowa which have been under water since last week.

CONDITION UNCHANGED

The condition of Probate Judge Oscar Gast, a patient in University hospital, Columbus, remains unchanged, it was reported today. Earlier this week the hospital reported his condition as "fair." He was removed to the Columbus hospital last Friday.

ASSOCIATION ELECTS DR. T. H. SUTHERLAND

Named Officer of International Medical Organization.

Dr. Thomas H. Sutherland has returned from Atlantic City where he was elected secretary and treasurer of the Aero Medical association, which held its 18th meeting there last week. He succeeds Dr. David Brachman of Detroit, who held the office 15 years. Air Commodore J. W. Tice of Canada, former air surgeons of the R. C. A. F., is the new president of the association. He succeeds Rear Admiral J. C. Adams, former air surgeon of the Navy. The association is composed of the flight surgeons of the Army, Navy and C.A. A. Dr. Sutherland is a member of the last named group.

While the association has always been international in character and membership, the constitution was changed at this meeting looking to a definite broader internationalization of its future.

In line with this internationalization the Fellows, an honorary group of 45 members, added to their membership Lt. Col. Raul T. Prieto, chief flight surgeon of the Mexican army air forces. Dr. Sutherland was elected to this group and also the executive council in 1944.

The concluding scientific paper was a discussion of aviation medicine and atomic warfare by a staff member of the Army School of Aviation Medicine at Randolph Field, Texas.

While in Atlantic City, Dr. Sutherland also visited the American Medical association meeting held there this week.

Winston Churchill Undergoes Surgery

By The Associated Press

LONDON, June 11 — Winston Churchill underwent an operation for hernia this morning.

The condition of the 72-year-old former prime minister was reported satisfactory.

He is expected to be absent from his duties as opposition leader in the house of commons for at least a month.

The bulletin announcing that the operation had been performed was signed by five doctors, including Lord Moran, president of the Royal College of Physicians, who attended Churchill, throughout the war, and Sir Thomas Dunhill, one of the King Geor's physicians.

AUTO INDUSTRY AVERTS CRISIS

Last-Minute Settlement Prevents Crippling Strike in Body Plant.

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, June 11—The auto industry was steered safely past a threatened crisis today by a new wages and hours pact for 2,500 Briggs Manufacturing Co. workers.

Briggs and the CIO United Auto Workers, with only hours to go before a strike deadline, agreed to terms late last night.

Their settlement on a two-year contract averted a strike set for 10 a. m. today which soon would have forced both Packard and Chrysler, each dependent on Briggs for auto bodies, to quit making passenger cars.

Produce One-Sixth

Together, Packard and Chrysler produce an estimated one-sixth of the industry's cars. Total idleness from a Briggs strike would have amounted to about 50,000.

But while the Briggs problem was solved, the industry still was not without labor difficulties.

The Ford Motor Co., charging a continuing slow-down in one department, yesterday closed its two Rouge plant assembly lines indefinitely. One hundred fifty body line workers in the pressed-steel department were sent home a second straight day. The assembly lines, turning out Ford and Mercurys, lacked parts, the company said.

Settlements Terms

The Briggs-UAW settlement incorporated the industry's "equivalent" 15-cents-an-hour increase—a flat 11½ cents plus six paid holidays—and was made retroactive to April 28.

Sending employes home for the second day, Ford charged production workers on the body line with a "slow-down" and "sabotage of equipment."

Rouge local replied the company was resorting to "subterfuge" and said the failure of rough to operate properly was due to the foremen's strike.

A strike of 3,800 members of the Foremen's Association of America (ind.) over a contract dispute entered its 22nd day today.

Office Workers' Strike Closes Hudson Plant

By The Associated Press

DETROIT, June 11—The automobile industry ran into more trouble today when striking office workers forced a shut-down of the Hudson Motor Car Co.

An estimated 600 office workers at Hudson, seeking salary increases, set up picket lines this morning and some 15,000 production workers, members of the CIO United Auto Workers, refused to cross them. The company then closed its plant.

The company has offered the CIO-UAW office workers an 8½ per cent or $21 monthly minimum increase for engineers and 9 per cent or $19.94 for other personnel, whichever is greater in either case. The employes have demanded 9 per cent or $26 for both.

$325,400 TOP PAY REPORTED IN STEEL

By The Associated Press

PHILADELPHIA, June 11—Two officials of National Steel Corp., Pittsburgh, were the top-paid executives of the nation's "Big Four" steel companies last year.

The company's annual report filed with the securities and exchange commission showed that Ernest T. Weir, of Pittsburgh, board chairman, and George Fink of Detroit, president, each received $325,400 gross remuneration for 1946. Both figures include $200,000 as share in profits.

The other companies in the Big Four reported these salaries for their top men:

Bethlehem Steel Corp., New York—Eugene G. Grace, chairman, $293,279.

Republic Steel Corp., Cleveland, O.—Thomas M. Girdler, chairman, $275,000.

C. M. White, president $200,000; N. J. Clark, senior vice president, $133,000.

U. S. Steel Corp., Hoboken, N. J.—Benjamin F. Fairless, New York, president, $154,800.

National reported these other remunerations: Thomas E. Millsop, vice president and president of Weirton, W. Va., Steel Co., and Weirton Coal Co., $305,400, including $140,000 in profits; George M. Humphrey, Cleveland, chairman of the executive committee, $67,500 bonus or shares in profits. Humphrey's total salary was not listed.

Russia Gets U. S. Hungarian Protest

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 11—The United States today sent Russia a strong protest against the Soviet upset of Hungary's government.

The state department note reportedly carries a threat to take the case before the United Nations if necessary.

The main proposal for action contained in the protest is understood to be a request for a joint American-British-Russian investigation of the situation in Hungary.

It was possible that some last minute changes were made in the text of the note by Secretary of State Marshall, who went over it finally shortly before it was sent out.

State department officials declined to detail the note's proposal immediately, but it was learned that the message on this country's views was sent to Soviet Lt. Gen. V. P. Sviridov, chairman of the Allied control commission in Hungary, with copies to Moscow and to London.

As the document was originally prepared, it accused the Soviets of unjustified interference in the internal affairs of Hungary and of violating the Yalta agreement. It proposed the three-power investigation with the threat of taking the whole case to the United Nations unless satisfactory information can be turned up absolving Russia of the American accusations.

(The late President Roosevelt Prime Minister Churchill of Britain and Generalissimo Stalin of Russia reached an agreement at a Yalta conference regarding policies to govern occupation of enemy nations.)

Diplomatic officials indicated today that the term "United Nations" is not actually used in the text of the note as finally sent but said there was no mistaking that an appeal to the United Nations is the ultimate move.

Break Possible In U. S.-Russian Stall Over Atom Control

By The Associated Press

LAKE SUCCESS, June 11—Russia today offered the United Nations a new set of atomic proposals which left the Soviet position on the veto in direct conflict with that of the United States but opened a possibility of agreement over international inspections.

Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, speaking before the UN atomic energy commission after a widely-publicized request for a special meeting, called for establishment of a world commission to carry out "strict international control over all facilities" engaged in mining and production of atomic energy.

However, he stipulated that the proposed commission should operate "within the framework of the security council" where Russia and the other four big powers hold the power of veto. Further, he said the proposed body would make recommendations to the council on "measures for prevention and suppression in respect to violators."

On inspections, Gromyko was not so clear and French Delegate Alexandre Parodi said in reply:

"A study of these proposals will enable us to see how far the Soviet Union will go in the matter of inspection."

Gromyko aid that the proposed commission, with internationally recruited personnel, would have "access to any facilities for mining, production and stockpiling."

The United States, which has been unbending in its stand against the veto in atomic matters, also insists on unlimited international inspections.

In this connection, Gromyko raised the question later in his speech as to whether the UN would have to operate at times through governments rather than directly when he said that the commission should have the right of "requesting from the governments of any nation and checking of, various data and reports on the activities of atomic energy facilities.

Gromyko took the floor later to explain that the new proposals were an elaboration of his earlier plan. He stressed that he was not withdrawing Soviet amendments to the American atomic plan, including those affecting the veto.

He delivered his 15-minute speech in English, appearing before the full 12-nation commission after telling a working committee yesterday that he was "full of compromises."

Declaring that the atomic energy commission has not made due progress in its work even after the commission's majority endorsement of the American (Baruch) plan, Gromyko said "it is time to proceed to the solution of concrete tasks."

He called the Soviet Union would insist that the task of prohibiting atomic weapons be considered from the viewpoint of its "necessity."

He did not change his basic position for immediately outlawing the bomb and only then for a convention setting up atomic controls.

QUIZ CHILDREN AT MASSILLON

Small Patients "Saw Something" Night of Babies' Murder, Official Says.

(Pictures on Page 6)

By The Associated Press

MASSILLON, O., June 11—Police Chief Stanley W. Switter today said several child patients at Massillon City hospital "actually saw something" the night two infants were slain in the pediatrics nursery.

In a news conference Chief Switter disclosed that Dr. Persis Simmons, chief psycholist of the bureau of juvenile research at Columbus, had questioned children patients who had been quartered on the same floor with the nursery at the time of the slaying last Friday night.

"It has been sifted down," Chief Switter told newsmen, "to the fact the children acutally saw something. We believe they saw something.

"But, they are to upset emotionally for us to determine just what they saw."

Mum on How Many

The Massillon police chief declined to divulge how many children were questioned by the psychologist

The excitement engendered by publicity given this city's worst crime has contributed to the children's emotional upset, the chief declared. He described some of the children as "enjoying all the publicity."

"Some of the children show that they want to help," Switter explained, "but others try to fit themselves into the picture."

Chief Switter said the children definitely had been "deeply impressed" by something they saw, but he said Dr. Simmons was unable to "get anything definite."

Report On Way

The Columbus psychologist, he said, planned to discuss her analysis with colleagues at B. J. R. and submit a written report "at a later date."

Dr. Simmons did not make any recommendations at this time, Chief Switter said.

Dr. Simmons worked with two police investigators in the ques-

RELATION WITH CANADA CITED

Aid to All Nations Seeking To Live Without Coercion Promised.

By The Associated Press

OTTAWA, June 11—President Truman said today the United States intends to help those nations that want to live in peace with their neighbors, without coercion or intimidation.

He also promised that American resources will be used to promote world recovery by aiding those who are willing to make the "maximum contribution to the same cause."

Addressing the Canadian parliament in a speech in which he called for completion of the St. Lawrence project, a subject which long has stirred controversy in the United States, the President declared:

"We seek a peaceful world, a prosperous world, a free world, a world of good neighbors, living on terms of equality and mutual respect, as Canada and the United States have lived for generations.

"We intend to support those who are determined to govern themselves in their own way, and who honor the right of others to do likewise.

"U. S. To Aid Peace"

"We intend to aid those who seek to live at peace with their neighbors, without coercing or being coerced, without intimidating or being intimidated.

"We intend to uphold those who respect the dignity of the individual, who guarantee him equal treatment under law, and who allow him the widest possible latitude to work out his own destiny and achieve success to the limit of his capacity.

"We intend to cooperate actively and loyally with all who honestly seek, as we do, to build a better world in which mankind can live in peace and prosperity."

In what was interpreted by many as an indication the $400,000,000 Greek-Turkish aid program and the $350,000,000 relief measure for other devastated countries may be followed later by support for other countries, Mr. Truman asserted:

"At this critical hour in history, we of the United States are deeply conscious of our responsibilities to the world. We know that in this trying period, between a war that is over and a peace that is not yet secure, the destitute and the oppressed of the earth look chiefly to us for sustenance and support until they can again face life with self-confidence and self-reliance."

Canada Echoes Sentiment

The President spoke after Canadian Prime Minister W. L. MacKenzie King quoted him as having said previously that "the breaking of the peace anywhere is the concern of peace-loving nations everywhere," and declared "this statement of American policy might equally be a statement of Canadian policy."

The President, speaking after a round of receptions which followed his good will visit to Ottawa with Mrs. Truman and his daughter, Margaret, said he counted good neighbor Canada "in the forefront of those who share these objectives and ideals."

His own country, he said, is "keenly aware that much de-

One of the most effective contributions which our two countries can make to the cause of the United Nations is the patient and diligent effort to apply on a global scale the principles and practices which we have tested with success on this continent.

Our trade with each other is far greater than that of any other two nations on earth. • • • Ambassador Atherton has aptly given the reason as not "free trade" but "the trade of free men."

That record flow of goods and the high standard of living it indicates, on both sides of the border, provide a practical demonstration of the benefits of the democratic way of life and a free economy.

Some of our greatest assets are still to be developed to the maximum. I am thinking of one particularly that holds tremendous possibilities, the magnificent St. Lawrence-Great Lakes system which we share and which we must develop together.

SERVICE Is The Real Need In Funerals . . .
The consideration given to funerals is too often concerned with the cost of this or that casket. Many overlook the matter of service. Personal and professional services together with proper surroundings and equipment are the really important part of funeral service.
That is why we maintain a fine Funeral Home with real air conditioning and the Everett organ It also is why so many hours of personal service are devoted to the arrangements for every funeral.

THE NATION TODAY

June 16 Double Deadline—For Taxpayers and Truman Action

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, June 11—Monday, June 16 is a double deadline for several million taxpayers and President Truman.

It's a double deadline by accident but, just because of that, it may mean a problem for those several million taxpayers.

Here's why

By Monday midnight those several million must make the second quarterly payment on their estimated income tax for 1947.

James Marlow

And by Monday night President Truman must approve or veto the new income tax bill.

The problem of the taxpayers and the answer follow.

In 1947 most people will have their full income tax taken out of their wages and salary.

But some don't have any tax taken out of their income during the year and some know they'll owe more tax than is taken from them

Had To Make Payment

The two groups in the paragraph above—there are several million of them—had to do something special last March 15. It was this

They had to make the first quarterly payment on the difference between the tax withheld from them, if any, and the total 1947 tax they'd owe.

For those people the total tax they figured they'd owe this year is called their estimated tax.

As noted, the first payment was due March 15. The other payments are due June 15, Sept. 15 and next Jan. 15

But June 15 is a Sunday. The internal revenue bureau makes allowance for that.

Instead of making midnight Sunday, June 15, the deadline for paying the estimated tax, the bureau will allow people to pay up to midnight Monday.

How About Tax Bill?

But this is where the problem for some of those taxpayers starts.

Congress has passed a bill cutting income taxes this year and sent it to Mr. Truman to sign into law or veto

Strictly by accident, and not by intention, the deadline for his signing or vetoing falls on Monday, too.

Will he veto it? It's widely believed he will. What will that mean?

It will mean no tax cut at all this year unless congress, by a two-thirds vote, can re-pass the bill over the veto. Not much chance.

But, since anything can happen, there is the long chance that the bill may become law.

To Cut or Not To Cut

So maybe some of those people, who are going to pay their second quarterly installment of estimated tax by Monday midnight, are asking themselves,

Should I take a chance on the tax-cut bill becoming law and cut down on my estimated tax for 1947 when I pay by June 16?

The answer don't cut it down. Go ahead and pay your regular estimated tax, whether or not the tax-cut bill becomes law.

If it becomes law, you can cut down on your estimated tax when you make the next payment on Sept. 15.

Or, if it becomes law, keep on making your regular estimated payments right up through next Jan 15

Then you'll get a refund—if the new bill becomes law—on the tax money you've overpaid for the year

In short: It isn't worth bothering about now. Make your regular payment.

MEAT SUPPLY HANGS IN WEATHER BALANCE

WASHINGTON, June 11—The nation's 1948 meat supply hangs in the balance today as midwestern farmers hope anxiously for dry, hot weather which will let them finish planting their dangerously delayed corn crop.

The agriculture department, in a report yesterday which forecast a wheat crop of almost unbelievable proportions, painted a rather dark picture of corn prospects.

It said that between 20 and 25 per cent of the corn acreage remained unplanted June 1, which is a late date, because of wet weather.

A short corn crop would force farmers to cut down on the production of meat animals, milk and poultry products. Reduced supplies of these foods would force prices higher.

While the department's crop report still held out hope for a full corn acreage, one official said he is "pretty well alarmed."

Harold K. Hill assistant director of the corn belt region for the department's production and marketing administration, told a reporter:

"The situation looks dark because weather conditions since June 1 have improved very little in heavy-producing areas of the midwest."

This year's wheat crop was forecast at 1,409,893,000 bushels—almost twice the pre-war average. This estimate is 254,000,000 bushels more than last year's record crop and is about 133,000,000 bushels more than was forecast a month ago

A wheat crop of this size would be widely regarded as a blessing, with world production still far short of needs.

SPEAKER STRESSES NEED FOR CHRISTIAN REBIRTH

"Creative Certainty" Is Youth Service Sermon Theme.

A girls' trio sang a special number at the "Christ for Youth" service at Calvary Evangelical United Brethren church last night, and Rev. Dewey Long of Waggram, song leader, presented a solo number. The trio was composed of Lavina Strine, Nannette Hanning and Phyllis Gorenflo. Edwin Endicott read Scripture. For his sermon, Rev. James Sutherland of Aron used the subject "Creative Certainty." His message included the following thoughts:

"Before a man can get into the Kingdom of God he must be born again. The pride of knowing where we are going in life and what we are making of life is eternal vigilance about these spiritual natures of ours. Are people saying that they would like to have the kind of assurance we have in this life? A man can know that he is a Christian. Are you sure you are one?

"We will grow in grace as we tell it to the world. The abiding mark of the Christian life is to be found in the commitment to the divine will. You must say that you will do his will no matter what the cost. He that wills to do God's will will know what he is."

Services will continue each night this week and next with the exception of Saturday night. The services are held at 8

No. 1 Red Convicted On Contempt Count

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 11—Gerhart Eisler, alleged No. 1 Communist leader in this country, was convicted yesterday of contempt of congress.

The federal court jury deliberated only 20 minutes before returning the verdict, which carries a maximum penalty of a $1,000 fine and four months to a year imprisonment.

Judge Alexander Holtzoff set June 27 for sentencing.

Eisler was indicted on contempt charges for allegedly refusing to be sworn in for testimony before the house committee on un-American activities. He contended the committee refused to let him read a prepared statement before administering the oath

PLANS MADE FOR SOCIAL

Plans for an ice cream social were made at a meeting recently of the Ladies Aid of the Missionary Society of St. Paul Lutheran church held with Mrs. Harley Mayers of near Marion. The social is scheduled for July and proceeds will be donated toward purchase of a new carpet for the church. Mrs. Leroy Fetter reviewed the missionary outlook following Scripture reading and prayer. Mrs. Raymond Seas of Wallace street will be hostess at the next meeting on July 11.

Kiwanis Hears Of Galion Power Needs

Special to The Star

GALION, June 11—Three representatives of the Ohio Power company were preesnt at the meeting of the Galion Kiwanis club Tuesday noon at Hotel Talbott to discuss Galion's electric power needs.

They said that power could be furnished to Galion either continuously or as much as was needed, and the company could give uninterrupted power for industry. Galion's problem has been a need for more power than is now being furnished by the Galion Municipal Light and Power plant.

Representatives present were District Manager Albright of Bucyrus, who was the main speaker; industrial and commercial representative and supervisor for this division, Emler of Tiffin; and industrial service representative of this district, Boyd of Bucyrus.

Employment Here Down During May

Industrial employment in Marion during May dropped from the total of the preceding month, according to the monthly business report of the Marion Chamber of Commerce. A total of 9,953 persons were employed during May, while the figure for April was 10,027. In May last year 9,593 were employed by Marion industries.

Other items mentioned in the report follow, with figures for last month shown first, and figures for the same month last year in parenthesis: bank debits, $29,819,415 ($26,158,303); postal receipts, $21,135 ($20,451); automobile sales, 76 new cars, 32 trucks and 164 used cars (62 new cars 15 trucks and 57 used cars); gas meters, 10,459 (10,046).

N. Y. TIRE DEALERS SLASH RETAIL PRICE

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, June 11—Retail ... dealers, anxious to unload ... stocks, are cutting prices of passenger car tires as much as $4 ... $5 each, a survey of dealers ... disclosed today.

"Price-cutting has reached the throat stage," said A. C. ... Schwarz, a Manhattan dealer.

He added that some retailers ... working on gross margin as ... as 10 per cent compared with a normal margin of 25 to 30 per cent.

Another source said some retailers are selling tires at almost the same price small dealers have to pay for them wholesale, and estimated that casings which had a $16 ceiling under OPA can be bought today by car-owners for as little as $9 to $10.

Louis K. Beller, president of Public Service Tire and Rubber Co. of Brooklyn said within the past four months retail prices of 6.00 x 16 passenger tires have dropped from $17 to $12.50 or $13 retail. Tubes that sold at $3.50 three months ago now are going at around $2.50, he added.

Truck tires have taken a similar cut at retail.

Beller said he anticipates further cuts at the retail level because "tires are overproduced."

Other dealers said recent announcement of reductions in wholesale prices by the big tire manufacturers probably would result in further cuts at retail.

In a meeting of Bird-McGinnis Post No. 162, of the American Legion last night at the Dugout, membership awards were presented to the following: Jewel Ralston, T. E. Kinnear, R. W. Brown, N. V. Foreman, E. L. West, D. J. MacDonald, William Arndt, J. Albert Dripps, Frank Bowen, Francis Field, W. E. Orcutt and Newton D. Cunningham.

Announcement was made that Marion Voiture, 40 et 8, will go to Mansfield June 14. The boxcar will leave the courthouse at 12 noon and all Legionnaires and 40 et 8 members attending are to meet there. The county convention will be held June 15 at 2 p. m. in the G.I. Post No. 884 club rooms.

For the program, Miss Virginia Grover at the piano, and Bobby Wingett, trumpet soloist, presented a group of selections.

Program To Give Ohio Rodmen More Places To Fish Moves On

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., June 11—Ohio's headwater lake program, intended to give more fishermen more places to fish, takes another official step forward Sunday with dedication of a $60,000, hundred-acre lake on Deer creek in Madison county.

Gov. Thomas J. Herbert, Conservation Commissioner H. A. Rider and Commission Member David C. Bradfute of Xenia will join London and Madison county dignitaries in ceremonies starting at 11 a. m. An ox-roast, shooting and fly-casting demonstrations, and Boy and Girl Scout programs are scheduled.

Located near London, Lake Madison was built on land donated by Thomas Wood, Mayor E. P. Speasmaker and Ulerick Bauerle to the Madison Fish and Game association.

Completed Six Months

The earthen dam and concrete spillway of the lake actually were completed six months ago, but the project won't be marked finished for some time. Access roads and park buildings and facilities still are to be built.

Four other headwater lakes running between 125 and 400 acres each, are expected to be completed this year, Rider reported today. They are a $30,000 lake in Adams county near West Union, a similar-sized lake near New Lexington in Perry county, a $100,000 project to be built in cooperation with the state highway department on Sterlin run near Mount Orab in Brown county, and a $60,000 lake near McConnelsville in Morgan county.

5 Other Paper Lakes

Five other lakes are on paper, with much of the land needed either bought or under option, but they are not expected to take shape until next year, Rider added. The division, however, may try to start work on one, on Pater run in Butler county near Hamilton, later this year when Highway construction slackens and contractors are free to bid on other jobs, he said.

The others are in Hocking, Henry, Defiance and Washington counties.

The headwater lakes—about eight, such as Lakes Alma, Kaiser and Jackson, already have been built—are separate from the bigger recreational lakes.

3 in Making

The division has three of these in the making—the 500-acre, $500,000 Stonelick lake in Clermont county, on which bids may be asked this fall; the 850-acre Cowan's Creek lake in Clinton county, which may be advertised for bids this summer yet; and the 2,000-acre Rocky Fork lake in Highland county.

On the latter, a $1,500,000 project to be built in cooperation with the U. S. army engineers and the Scioto-Sandusky conservancy district, the conservation division must wait to see if the federal government will lift the economy suspension slapped on it by President Truman. The division has just started paying for the land it will need.

Ohioan Chats Atop Tower, Then Suicides

By The Associated Press

CINCINNATI, June 11—A retired hardware store executive chatted with sightseers atop the 49-story Carew tower yesterday, pointed out spots of interest and then climbed over the ledge and plunged 574 feet to his death on a street below.

The man was identified as James P. Bailey, 49, of neighboring Wyoming, O.

Witnesses told police Bailey had been strolling around the tower observation platform for nearly a half hour before diving to his death.

John Davis, 26, of Perintown, told newsmen he had been conversing with the man.

"We turned to the souvenir counter," he said, "but looked around in time to see him crawl over the guard rail. He shouted 'Here I go, boys' before he disappeared over the edge of the platform.

Bailey's relatives could give no motive for his act.

LYNCH CANDIDATE SAVED BY MAYOR

By The Associated Press

HURTSBORO, Ala.— A 19-year-old Negro was alive today because Mayor Hurt Vann of this small, deep-south town had the courage to convince a lynch-bent mob that the law was better than the rope.

The Negro, Jimmy Harris, thus became the second within the past three weeks to escape a southern mob intent on avenging the alleged attempted raping of two white women.

Harris was rescued yesterday as he lay in the dirt, bound and with a rope around his neck.

Mayor Vann said that when he and the others arrived they told the crowd they ought to release the Negro because "that is the best way—we ought to let the law take its course."

Asked why he thought the mob had released Harris, Vann replied, "We all cooperate pretty good around here. I told them this was the best way. We didn't want to give the town a black eye."

4-H CLUB MEETING

A meeting of the New Bloomington Shining Star 4-H club was held Thursday at the home of Miss Ruth Allen. The business meeting was conducted by Miss Ruth Ann Rothfuss, vice president. A demonstration on how to make a potholder was given by Miss Allen. Misses Joyce Maury and Nancy Ulmer were in charge of the recreation period.

Red Blood Cells Must Be Kept Up If You Want To Feel Alive

Thousands Now Regaining Old Time Pep, Vigor and Drive By Releasing Vibrant Energy To Every Muscle, Fibre, Cell

Overwork, undue worry, and lack of certain foods often reduces the red-blood strength—and starved, weak, puny blood just hasn't the power to keep up your energy and drive.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that S.S.S. Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the S.S.S. Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, S.S.S. Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloat and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on S.S.S. Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. S.S.S. Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

An Angry President

NEWSMEN covering the White House say President Truman's composure has left him. At his latest press conference he was impatient and angry. We don't blame him.

Russia hasn't been visibly impressed by the so-called "Truman Doctrine" in foreign relations.

The United States hasn't been visibly impressed by the "Truman doctrine" about reducing prices by joint resolution of politicians and businessmen.

John L. Lewis hasn't been visibly impressed by the slapping around received from the department of justice.

The public hasn't been visibly impressed by the department of justice's handling of smelly vote frauds in Kansas City. The Chicago Tribune is demanding impeachment of Attorney General Clark.

The overwhelming majority of congressmen haven't been visibly impressed by the hue and cry about the union regulation bill and the tax bill; Mr. Truman has gone out on a limb for both of them.

No one at all is visibly impressed by the clumsy maneuvers of Mr. Truman's campaign for renomination and reelection; latest bungle in that line the President's most-feared opponent, Senator Taft, a chance to pin the presidential ears back with a sharp retort to a White House statement that read as if it had been composed in a hurry by one of the office girls.

If Mr. Truman feels sore enough to show it, he can't be blamed. Everything seems to be going wrong, and it looks as if things would get a lot worse before they can begin to get better.

Preview of a Headache

THOSE who felt that the recent telephone strike was survived considerably better than might have been expected shouldn't miss the preview of the headache coming if telephone unionists succeed in their newest strategy.

Joseph A. Beirne, who led the telephone strike, has called the first convention of a new union—Communications Workers of America, successor to National Federation of Telephone Workers. C.W.A., it is made plain, is designed to overcome the weakness of N.F.T.A.—its lack of cohesiveness. It will be one big union of all communications workers, able to tie up telephone, telegraph and radio simultaneously. That would be the zenith of public inconvenience.

This idea has been cooking a long time. It would make Beirne, or whoever dictated C.W.A. policy, more powerful than the president of the United States. It would make him more powerful even than John L. Lewis, because Mr. Lewis must rely on communications to tell his men when not to go to work.

Backing Up, Step by Step

ONE DOESN'T have to be a diplomat to discern a pattern in the coup in Hungary, the transportation tieup in France, the current unrest in Italy and swashbuckling statements by Austria's Communist leader. They are all part of a movement to extend Communist frontiers across Europe.

So far our retaliatory action to Soviet aggression has been pathetically inadequate. It has consisted principally of waggling an accusatory finger. That will never stem the Soviet tide.

What we must do is take stock of the situation and anticipate developments instead of issuing denunciatory statements after the Reds have taken charge. We have been backing up, step by step, always off balance, never ready for the next move. We are using meddling fingers to plug holes in the dike instead of trying to build up the dike. As Walter Lippmann said last week, "We are in grave danger, not of withdrawing into isolation as in 1919, but of advancing into isolated interventions all over the globe. We are not strong enough or wise enough to do that successfully and we shall squander our influence, our power and our resources if we attempt it."

If this Soviet drive is to be stemmed, we must concentrate on nations which have free government and which have some hope of recovering economic stability. We shall have to gather them about us as our allies and decide on a "so far and no farther" policy. Then by our actions we shall have to indicate we mean what we say. It's either that or abandon Europe to communism.

A Civil Service Job

By CLARKE BEACH

It Seems They're Not Always Secure.

WASHINGTON—The myth of job security among so-called "permanent civil service employes" has been exploded.

Arthur S. Flemming, Civil Service Commissioner, estimates that 52,000 persons with permanent civil service appointments will have been discharged during the 12 months ending June 30.

The commission is striving to find new government jobs for them as openings occur, but persons with special skills cannot be interchanged among all federal jobs. Chances are, says Flemming, no new government positions will be found for a large proportion of them.

Many Job Casualties

With Congress and the administration racing to squeeze the federal payroll, the total has been decreased from 3,700,000 on V-J Day to an estimated 2,100,000 at the end of this June. Among those being let out are 468,900 persons with temporary war service appointments. Of these positions, 203,000 have been refilled by employes with permanent civil service status.

The Civil Service Commission can terminate temporary appointments, and it is using this authority vigorously to induce government agencies to replace such employes with permanent federal workers wherever possible. Yet it has been unable to avoid tens of thousands of job casualties.

The government folk who are getting the ax, or who see their old office-mates cut off, are doing a lot of thinking about the whole issue of government versus private employment. Here are some pertinent facts on the subject:

Changes Slow

Turnover in government is normally small, even during a change in administrations. (In President Cleveland's first administration, 1885-'89, the turnover was 80 per cent, which was considered relatively mild. The Civil Service Act of 1883, passed to eliminate the "spoils system," at first protected only 12 per cent, but Cleveland left another 8 per cent). In 1937, a typical peacetime year, the government increased its number of employes by 4 per cent and decreased it by 3.8 per cent.

There never has been any guarantee of permanent employment. Heads of agencies can fire civil service employes as long as they do it in the legal manner and have a good reason for it, such as a necessary reduction in force or inefficiency on the part of the worker. Between July 1946 and March 1947 Flemming says 20,200 government employes were discharged for cause.

Promotions do not come automatically. If the employe's annual efficiency rating is "good," however, he is entitled to a raise of one step within his grade.

Government employes' salaries range from $1,080 a year to $10,000. The average has been estimated at about $2,651. In July 1945 government employes got their first pay raise in seventeen years—20 per cent in the lower salary levels. They got another one in July 1946 amounting to about 14 per cent in most instances.

Work Conditions

A 40-hour week is standard for nearly all government workers, with extra pay or time off for overtime.

They get 26 days' leave each year, but this isn't all vacation. Any time they are tardy or want time off for personal business or emergencies, the time is deducted from annual leave. They have in addition 1¼ days a month for sick leave.

When a government employe is fired, he gets no severance pay. Not being covered by social security, he gets no unemployment compensation. Although he does not participate in the social security pension system, he benefits from a government retirement plan, for which he contributes 5 per cent of his salary.

Estimated Advantages

Miss Frances Perkins, former secretary of Labor and now a member of the Civil Service Commission, told me she believes government workers in the lower salary brackets are beter off than they would be in private industry.

Clerks, typists, messengers, etc., get better wages, she said, and enjoy greater advantages in working conditions, rights and privileges.

But many government workers who make $5,000 or more, she added, probably could get better salaries outside the government. Few could look forward to a non-civil service appointment paying much more than the top civil service salary of $10,000.

"But I have known a great many of these people," she remarked, "who stay in the government because the satisfaction of public service means so much more to them than being just a money grubber. The dignity and prestige of government service is a great compensation."

John Bull Is Now

A Colorful Character

British men are reported favoring pastel colors—pinks, blues and lavenders—for their summer hats and suits.

Apparently it's not only in parliament that the conservative influence is on the wane.

Shades of Robin Hood . . . . If Beau Brummel were around today, he'd look like the end man in a technicolor minstrel.

This is the first time in the history of the industry that there's been a mid-summer demand for Easter egg dye.

Of course, the style has its practical side. With suits that loud, there's no danger of running into each other in even the London-est fog.

Yes sir, our British cousins have changed the old adage . . . . to "Clothes make the man CONSPICUOUS."

German Divorce Rate Zooms

By TOM REEDY

By The Associated Press

MUNICH, June 11—The war has turned Germany into a giant dvorce mill.

Munich, a metropolitan city surrounded by lush farmland, is typical of the entire country's disrupted family life, officials here say.

Before the war the rate of divorce here was about 1,800 a year. During the conflict, it rose to about 2,000. When civil courts reopened in 1946, the rate jumped to 4,000. So far this year 1,587 marriages have been dissolved, indicating there will be 6,000 or more before year's end.

The most common reasons the Germans give, says Dr. Friedrich Welsch, chief attorney in Bavaria, is (A) Refusal on the part of one mate to cohabit and (B) Three years' separation.

In cases as simple as these, the divorce goes through in two months. More complicated cases must wait.

"We can't bother with them now," Dr. Welsch complained. "Maybe in a year or two, it will be different but now the lack of judges is so bad that we can work only on those cases that can be solved quickly."

Expect to Increase

An even higher rate is anticipated when all German prisoners of war are returned. Dr. Eugene Schmeer, president of the Munich civil courts, explained:

"During the war, marriage was very easily entered into and the participants did not really know each other well. Maybe they met when he was on furlough, then he returned to the front lines. Now he is back and they find they can't live together."

Most of those seeking divorce are war brides and grooms. In wartime Germany, it seemed so much easier to be wed—more government support for the wife, more leaves for the husband.

The soldier no longer has a good position, he's lucky if he can find a job. The wife must work to support both of them. A woman always can cook, sew and clean.

These women have found, too, that they were able to get along pretty well without friend husband. With the food and housing shortage he's somewhat of a nuisance.

German officials found another side of the story in a number of divorce cases on record:

The husband came home to find his shoes filled. His wife had a boy friend. Sometimes he saw a GI coat hanging in his closet.

Difficult Problem

When peace came, the German courts had a ticklish problem to figure out how divorce cases could be handled. The old civil code of 1900 seemed out of date. The Nazi laws were abrogated. So a new law was passed by the Bavarian legislature which made one major departure from old custom. No longer is failure to produce children a reason for absolute divorce. The Nazis had used this as an excuse to get rid of a wife for a younger mate, and that had suited Hitler's demands for more cannon fodder.

Such practices shook the family life tradition in Germany, and the rigors of living as a defeated nation have complicated it even further. Dr. Welsch hopes the wave of broken marriages will subside next year as normal living "again becomes the mainstay of the nation."

The Early Bird Takes the Count

By The Associated Press

SACRAMENTO—The pheasant is a persnickety bird, California airborne game wardens have found out.

Taking a recent census of pheasants from low-flying planes, they discovered that it has to be done between sunrise and about 8 a. m. During that time the pheasants stand still, in the open, in spite of the roar of the plane, and allow themselves to be counted.

They just don't want to take cover in grass covered with dew.

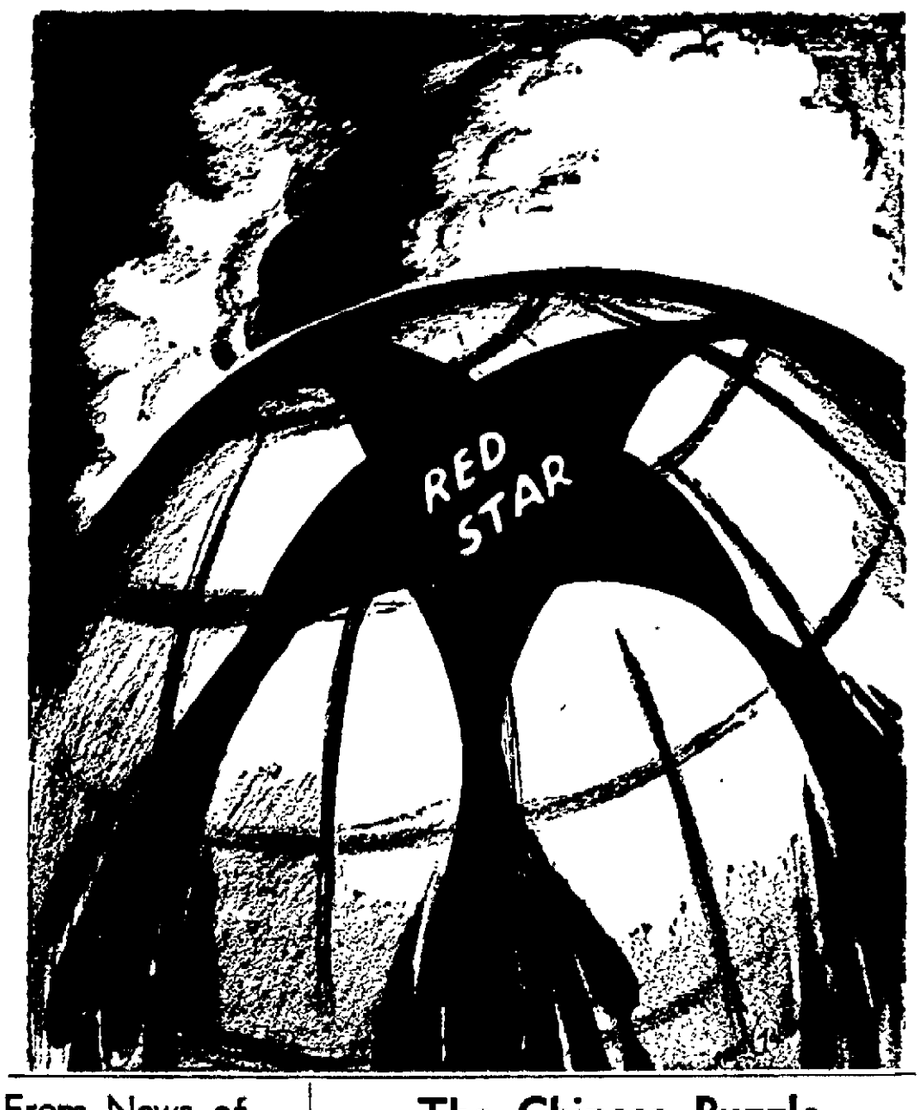
SPILLING OVER



From News of Other Years

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Friday, June 11, 1937. President Roosevelt signed a resolution authorizing a broad congressional inquiry into tax dodging.

Thirty-two candidates for municipal office, including two women seeking council positions, had filed papers with the county board of election before a 6:30 o'clock deadline.

Mrs. D. J. Shelton of the Richland pike was hostess when the Marion Garden club met for a steak roast. The committee in charge included Mrs. M. E. Burke, chairman, Miss Geraldine Hord, Miss Christine Rieck, Mrs. O. S. Rapp and Mrs. Roberta Krastz.

William Erastus Carter, a former resident of Agosta, died at his home in Pontiac, Mich.

Charles D. Fuller, Joseph A. Morrison, E. Lloyd Bowersock, John V. Ruth and Charles H. Tate were named delegates and Norvall V. Foreman, Thomas L. Hurley, Paul D. Reynolds, Harry G. Baker of Marion and Scott Howison of Waldo alternates to the state encampment of Veterans of Foreign Wars at Toledo.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Howard of Summit street were in Columbus where their daughter, Jean, a junior at Ohio State university, took part in the performance of the Shakespearean play, "As You Like It," presented by the Browning Dramatic society.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

It was Saturday, June 17, 1927. The nation joined in a welcome to Col. Charles A. Lindbergh with ceremonies centering in Washington where President Coolidge gave an official address of welcome before a throng of nearly 100,000 people and called him "our ambassador without portfolio."

Mary Virginia Scott, 5, was killed when hit by a truck near her home on South High street.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Bolander of Lee street.

Mrs. Robert Ingle, 55, died at her home on Lee street.

Miss Della M. Hecker of Agosta and John Willis of Kenova, O., were united in marriage by Rev. H. E. Williamson at the Oakland Evangelical parsonage on Bellefontaine avenue.

Boyd Titsworth of East Center street arrived home from Lafayette, Ind. where he was a student at Purdue university. He was accompanied by B. C. Jamison of Omaha, Neb., L. D. Simonson of Hazlet, N. J. and J. C. Prabulos of North Hampton, Mass., fraternity brothers who were to be his weekend guests.

The Chinese Puzzle

By JOSEPH and STEWART ALSOP

WASHINGTON, June 11—One of the most intricate political Chinese puzzles in years is involved in John L. Lewis' recent action in pulling the plug on the wage negotiations with the coal operators. The parts of the puzzle are simple enough. For example, it is obvious that Lewis's action puts tremendous pressure on the President to sign the labor bill, which Lewis calls a "slave bill." The difficulty is to fit the parts of the puzzle together.

Lewis has now raised the specter of a coal strike next month. Only 10 days ago that specter was largely discounted at the White White House. The local negotiations had the appearance of proceeding more successfully than might have been expected, and a coal settlement was counted on. Moreover, Lewis had it in his power to continue this outward appearance of successful negotiation while the decision to sign or not to sign the Hartley-Taft bill was under consideration. Lewis did not chose to do so. Instead, he demanded a 35 cent-an-hour raise, more than double the national pattern set by his rival, Philip Murray of the CIO, as well as other benefits. The negotiations collapsed. There can be little doubt that Lewis, for whatever reasons, wanted them to collapse.

Strikes Costly

There is yet another part of the Chinese puzzle. All the evidence suggests that Lewis in fact does not want another coal strike. The three strikes during the past year have hit his men hard. Many of them still have large debts at the company stores, incurred during the strikes. During the last strike particularly—the "holiday" after the Centralia disaster—there was considerable muttering in the ranks. Officials of the department of the interior here have received messages from the mine workers locals urging them to prevent a strike at all costs. Naturally enough, since he has tripled wages since the thirties, for the miners the sun still rises and sets on John L. Lewis. Yet another prolonged strike would be a severe economic strain on the miners, and the mutterings in the ranks might rise to a roar.

Yet Lewis chose the very week when the Taft-Hartley bill was edging toward the President's desk to raise the awful specter of another damaging strike in coal. He has thus presented the majority of the President's advisers, who are urging him to sign the bill, with their heaviest ammunition. Why?

Answer the Same

A number of the most astute political observers here have been asking themselves that question. And they have all come up with the same peculiar answer: John L. Lewis wants Harry Truman to sign the labor bill. One man who has had 25 years of experience in watching the national political circus arrived at this answer by means of what he calls a "Rube Goldberg process of reasoning." Yet it is the only answer which can be made to fit the facts.

The elephantine Lewis does not easily forget an injury. Since last autumn, when Harry Truman surprised the nation by slicing Lewis down to size, Lewis is known to have detested Truman with the relentless fervor once reserved for Franklin Roosevelt. Moreover Lewis, whatever else he is, is no fool. He is quite conscious of the threat to Truman's reelection involved in the increasingly likely emergence of Henry Wallace as the leader of a Communist-backed third party. And he knows that if Truman signs the labor bill the Wallace backers will be handed a big slice of labor support on a platter. Thus the fear of a coal strike can force Truman into signing the labor bill. He might well be signing his own political death warrant for 1948.

Moreover, if Truman signs the bill, the worries of Lewis's harassed old enemy, Philip Murray, president of the CIO, will be vastly augmented. Quite apart from whether the bill is a good bill or a bad bill, there is no question that it is sincerely hated and feared by organized labor. If Truman signs, the case of those leaders within the CIO who are fighting the Communists will be vastly weakened. The possibility which already exists of an explosion within the CIO on the Communist issue would be greatly increased.

The anti-Communist unions would join the AFL. Lewis' domination of the AFL is no secret, and he has no Communist worries within his own union. Thus Lewis might well end up as the leader of the whole non-Communist labor movement.

TOKYO—Emperor Hirohito, who must dispose of most of his real estate to pay his 90 per cent property tax, will have to get by on 45,000,000 yen a year from now on.

At the official exchange rate that is $3,000,000, but in actual buying power it is only about a half-million—still a tidy sum.

Hirohito isn't going to break up his palace grounds, however, and he still will be able to use his branch palace and villas. It's all a bookkeeping deal. The government will get title to them—and the government will give him the money to keep them running.

Hirohito has vast wealth, and the post-war government placed him on the tax list for the first time in history.

The Once Over

By H. I. PHILLIPS

Education and Traffic

The idea of a "college course" for those ha the responsibility for traffic law enforcemen announced by a leading University, is a o one. Even a casual study of traffic in any c America proves that plenty of schooling co endured by all hands.

• • •

Study any prominent street intersection any city and you will realize that it is a pe where the "IQ" reaches its lowest.

• • •

The man or woman who rates a high mark traffic is a rarity and it would seem pretty ev dent that most people, pedestrians, traffic c and farmers of traffic rules alike, are in all- competition for the dunce-cap.

• • •

There are 48 states in the nation and no tw agree on the main points in a battle for publ safety. Drive through any dozen states and yo will find three where the speed limit is approx imately the same. And every community seem trying to be different in the matter of traf signals.

• • •

One town decides on a walk interval fo pedestrians, and the next one's motto is "Ever man for himself!" This city prohibits left tur turns and that city makes it optional. And ever street corner has a traffic cop with a differen boiling point.

• • •

Judge Tweedledee rules that even if he ha political influence, a nitwit who drives a ca while drunk shall lose his license; Judge Twee dledum overrules the decision.

• • •

Lone prosecutor demands the stiffest treat ment of the twerp who passes a schoolhouse a 60 miles an hour, and another prosecutor recom mends that the matter be dropped because th offender is a good Elk and is nice to his mothe.

• • •

The college course will endeavor to instruc the cops, makers of traffic laws, prosecutors judges, etc., in the essentials of dealing wi traffic in the modern world, and we hope non of the students go through a red light durin the award of diplomas on class day.

• • •

We suggest the inclusion of the following i the final exams:

1—"A" is a poor kalsominer doing 45 an hou in a flivver to get a doctor for a sick wife; "B is the operator of a ten-ton fish truck doing 6 to make up for time lost in a tavern; which wi get the summons?

2—Mark the words which properly complet the following sentences:

(a) A speed of 60 miles an hour is unsaf because....it heats up the engine....it is har on tires....it may result in a tragedy.

3—What's wrong with these sentences?:

(a) When the taxicab and the private ca reached the same intersection at the same time the cop gave the private car the right of way

(b) The prosecuting attorney, upon learning that the driver who had just driven at high speed through a children's picnic was a member of the same political club, remained unmoved

(c) The traffic court judge imposed a penalty of six months for passing a red light, eight months for thumbing his nose at a policeman, a year for running down a pedestrian and 1 months for driving without a license and DI SUSPEND EXECUTION OF SENTENCE.

Dead Storage

By TRUMAN TWILL

It isn't important, but a citizen sometimes gets to wondering whatever became of all the sets of harness left over after the automobile came to stay, the airraid wardens' helmets, old-fashioned milk bottles, Princess Eugenia hats, golf knickers, kid curlers;

Surplus V-mail stationery, button shoes, Willkie buttons, soap-premium lamps with beaded shades, vitamin capsules, roller window-shades, long underwear for women, old-time printers, photographers' flash pans, wood-burning sets, Spanish shawls, pants guards for bicyclists;

Chamois powder "rags" and the ladies who used them, stereopticon sets, Hoover aprons, visor caps with ear tabs, old records of the Two Black Crows, ouija boards, crayon portraits of grandma and grandpa, mah jongg outfits, spare mantels for gas lights;

Old gramophones, loudspeakers for radios, portieres made of wallpaper, player pianos, bell-bottom trousers, sateen bloomers, sleeve garters, fountain pens guaranteed for a lifetime, automobile jacks that an automobile driver could understand, plush footstools;

Buggy whips, ruffled dust caps, glass plates for cameras, high-school diplomas and class flags, high-school rings and pins that were going to be worn forever and ever, rumpus rooms, walking sticks, bicycle bells, washboards, lotto sets, finch decks, shaving mugs;

Horse-drawn hearses, glass tinklers that hung on the front porch, feather dusters, mission furniture, souvenirs of Niagara Falls, Civil War swords, pictures of Teddy Roosevelt, copies of "Keep the Home Fires Burning" and the stuttering song about Katy, parlor organs, home shoe-repair outfits;

Turnip watches, ice boxes, silk shirts, Maxfield Parrish landscapes, oil lamps, corn-poppers, golden oak furniture, reticules, tatting shuttles, klaxons, lantern slides, pinch-on glasses, whalebone chokers, celluloid collars, pin-on watches, fur caps, outside cellar doors.

Steel triangles for beating time, fur-lined overcoats, plug hats, congress gaiters, morris chairs, rocking cradles, electric belts, base burners, Landon sunflowers, wicker lunch baskets, double-size beer mugs, starched shirt fronts, bread pans;

Upright telephones, sets of the complete works of William Fox, mustache cups, porch swings, eight-day clocks, brass beds, flannel petticoats, featherbeds, pictures of Rudy Vallee, long black stockings for the little boys and girls and modesty for young ladies.

They must still be around somewhere.

Memorial Service Held by Rebekahs

Initiation was held by Somowski lodge No. 164 Tuesday night and the annual memorial service was conducted. The initiation was held for eight candidates, while the annual service honored the memory of Mrs. Arloua Luellen. Taking part in the memorial service were Mrs. Wilmina Lynch, Mrs. Martha Dawson, Mrs. Lulu Merchant, Mrs. Ida Longshore, Mrs. Minnie VanAsbeck, who presided at the piano, and Mrs. Roxie Whysall, who sang. The lodge received an invitation to attend the Claiborne Rebekah lodge school of instruction at Richwood June 24, and it was announced a paper products demonstration will be given at the regular local lodge meeting on that date. The Friendship circle will meet in the home of Mrs. Rosa Slack of 483 Pearl street June 18.

Railroader Phones Molotov in Moscow "To Be Sociable"

By The Associated Press

OLEWEIN, Ia., June 11—M E. Schroeder, 30-year-old railroad fireman, told today how he put through a long distance call to Russian Foreign Minister Molotov in Moscow "just to be sociable."

"It was the best $22.50 (plus tax) I ever spent," Schroeder said in recounting the conversation which took place Sunday.

Schroeder said he reached Molotov at the Kremlin after a four and a half hour wait.

Molotov, he said, sounded somewhat surprised and asked:

"Are you in politics—do you want to talk about international affairs?"

"No, I'm just an ordinary fellow who wants to be sociable," Schroeder said he told the Soviet diplomat.

We talked about railroading briefly and then Molotov asked about the place I was calling from," Schroeder continued. "I told him about the midwest.

"Then he turned the phone over to his secretary and three or four other girls in his office butted in on the call.

"One of them wanted to know if I'd ever been to Hollywood. She sounded very disappointed when I said I hadn't."

Schroeder said Molotov spoke in English with a heavy accent. The railroadman added that he likes to call famous people and that once he tried to telephone Chiang-Kai-shek in China but couldn't get the call through.

G.A.R. Meeting Over As "Boys" Promise Return

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., June 11—Ohio's 81st encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic adjourned after four days activity today and two young fellows, each only a little more than 100 years old, left Columbus with the promise they'd be back next year for the 82nd get-together.

Still commander without a dissenting vote was John H. Grate of Atwater, elected by his Civil war buddy, John R. Bennett of Waynesfield, who in turn was reappointed by Grate as assistant adjutant and quartermaster general of the Ohio department.

The 100-year-old Grate and Bennett, who is 102, had the show all to themselves this year when Oakley H. Bennett of Alliance, who celebrates his 104th birthday Saturday, failed to appear.

After selecting Ohio's capital as site for the 1948 encampment, Bennett and Grates declared "We'll be here. That's a promise."

3 Arrested, Fined Following Fight

Three men who, police say, were fighting on North Main street in the downtown area Tuesday night, were fined $25 and costs each in municipal court this morning. All pleaded guilty to charges of intoxication and disorderly conduct.

They were Albert F. Thompson, 50, who has no home address, Forest D. Campbell, 39, of 233 Quarry street, and Jones Caldwell, 42, of 477 West Columbia street.

Blackburn-Magers Vows Spoken at Bucyrus

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, June 11—Miss Alice Elizabeth Blackburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Blackburn of Lemert, exchanged marriage vows with Richard Wayne Magers, son of Mrs. Earl Magers, of Bucyrus in a ceremony Sunday afternoon in Lemert Methodist church. Rev. A. B. Johnson officiated. Attendants were the bride's sister, Miss Ruth Blackburn, and Richard Betcher.

BABIES

tioning. She was sent to Massillon by Dr. Maurice Newburg, B. J. R. executive psychologist, at the request of Chief Switter.

Chief Switter, who has supported a theory of accidental death of eight-weeks old Diane Jean Brand and 10-weeks-old Rosemary Morton, still backed that view last night, despite a ruling by Stark County Coroner E. C. Reno, that the two little girls were slain.

Crushed Skulls With Foot?

Dr. Reno's decision, made public last night after autopsies, helped bolster the latest grisly theory—that who ever caused the deaths last Friday night crushed the tiny skulls with his foot.

Separate autopsy reports each disclosed crushing force had been applied to the side of the baby's heads.

"Could someone have stepped on their heads?" the coroner pondered aloud.

"It might have been possible, but I am not saying that such a thing happened," he said.

A newsman asked: "Were there any heel or other such marks on the heads of the infants?"

No Heel Prints Seen

"Not that I saw," Dr. Reno replied.

Cause of death was listed thus: Baby Morton—intra-cranial and extra-cranial hemmorrhage, laceration of the brain, fractured skull and "blunt force' the exact nature or manner of occurrence being undetermined."

Baby Brand—intra and extra cranial hemmorrhage, multiple fractures of the skull, blunt force.

Coroner Reno completed each report with his ruling the deaths were homicide.

Stark county offocials were unreachable for renewed comment, but dearth of official comment did nothing to squelch the flow of rumors. The town buzzed with them.

Coroner Gives Details

Coroner Reno, whose autopsy reports furnished the most complete version yet, stated that this is what happened in the case of baby Morton:

"On the night of June 6, the child was seen alive and sleeping in its crib in room 407, the pediatrics nursery of Massillon City hospital, by a nurse on duty at that time, and to all appearances as observed by the nurse, was sleeping at 7.35 p. m.

"That at 7:45 p. m., the child was found by the nurse (Nurse Marion Silleck) and the child was at the opposite end of its crib and that the diaper was around her ankles.

"There were abrasions and contusions about the forehead and head of the baby. A physician was called x x x who was in the hospital at that time and he came to the nursery, examined the child and instituted supportive thereapy and oxygen.

"Investigation further disclosed that while under supportive treatment the child became progressively worse and she died at 9:02 p. m."

Baby Brand was listed as dying at 10:10 p. m. in a similar statement.

Reporters Turn Sleuths As Officials Disagree

By The Associated Press

MASSILLON, O., June 11—A group of reporters slipped up on City hospital the other night, foraging for a new lead in the mysterious slayings of two babies in a peadiatrics nursery last Friday.

It was dark as the killer's heart and reporters' nerves were tense with there days of sleuthing.

From the shadows of a clump of bushes a tall figure stepped.

"I didn't do it" he intoned in a solemn voice to the startled newsmen. "I didn't have nothing to do with it."

Some rapid questioning quickly ruled out the man as a prime suspect. But that's the way things have been going for the press in this tangled, daffy case.

Press coverage of this Stark county city's worst crime in years has so roiled the local scene some Ohio newspapers carried stories on that phase alone.

One reporter described the confusion thusly: "Officials mounted their theories and rode away in all directions."

Police Chief Stanley W. Switter still held out for deaths by accident.

The Stark county coroner, Dr. E. C. Reno, ruled the deaths homicide.

And never shall the twain apparently meet on common ground.

The large and avid corps of newspaper reporters incurred official wrath in releasing a story that Harry E. Morton, 26-year-old father of one of the victims, was to be given a lie-detector test in Cleveland.

Police scientists said radio accounts of the test, heard by Morton, ruined the results of that scientific probe.

But the press blithely goes its way, and dull indeed is the day when one or more reporters aren't thrown from City hospital trying to slip over a fast interview with the nurse who found the bodies.

3 Accidents Listed In Traffic Report

An accident occurred on North Main street when cars driven by Forest G. Massie, 18, of 893 Cheney avenue and Orval B. West, 41, of 505 East Mark street collided at 10:15 p. m. Tuesday. West had been driving north and started to make a right turn. The Massie car was passing on the right and the autos came together, causing slight damage to both cars, according to the police report.

Another accident reported by police occurred on Mill street. A parked motorcycle, owned by Charles J. Henning, 38, of 543 North Greenwood street was knocked over by a car, which did not stop. The accident was reported at 2.45 p. m.

Mrs. Rhea O. Desterdick of 875 Oak street was driver of an auto which hit one driven by Gale W. Moore, 27, of 250 Uncapher avenue as it was making a left turn, police say. The accident occurred on Uncapher avenue at Bennett street at about 4:40 p. m.

Standard Oil Dealers Of District Meet Here

A new tire for automobiles soon to be sold by local dealers was introduced at a meeting Tuesday night of Standard Oil Co. dealers held at Hotel Harding. C. H. Bachelder, merchandising manager, conducted the meeting. Approximately 40 dealers representing Marion, Morrow, Crawford, Delaware, Union and Wyandot counties attended.

COUPLE FINED

Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Hayes of 419 West Church street were fined $15 and costs each in municipal court this morning. Mr. Hayes pleaded guilty to a charge of allowing an unlicensed operator to drive his car and Mrs. Hayes pleaded guilty to driving without a driver's license. Police say that when the arrest was made on Olney avenue at about 9 p. m. yesterday Mrs. Hayes was driving her husband's car accompanied by him.

K. E. FIELDS HEADS MASONIC CHAPTER

Chosen High Priest at Annual Election.

Kenneth E. Fields was elected high priest of Marion chapter No. 82, R.A.M., in the annual meeting held at the Masonic temple Tuesday night.

Elected with him were: George F. Rinker, king; Edwin P. King, scribe; Russell C. Snare, treasurer, Harold W. Hall, secretary, Albert J. Firestone, captain of the host, Fred C. Baldauf, principal sojourner, Floyd Schaffner, royal arch captain, Frank V. Fields, master of third veil, John L. Davis, master of second veil; Winthrop P. Ames, master of first veil, Robert Porter, senior steward, Robert Gamble, junior Steward; H. Raymond Finney, marshal, Roy H. Heisey, guard, and George O. Lockwood, trustee for three years.

Mr. Fields succeeds George O. Lockwood, who has served during the past year. The officers were installed by the following past high priests of Marion chapter: Stuart E. Jones, as grand high priest, Ralph E. Carhart, grand marshal, John T. Gruber, as grand chaplain and Clarence L. Price as grand secretary.

The following appointments were announced by Mr. Fields: finance committee, Harold J. Grigsby, Stuart E. Jones and J. Y. Apt; welfare committee, Harold W. Hall, Edwin P. King and George F. Rinker.

On behalf of the officers and members of Marion chapter, Mr. Carhart presented the retiring high priest a past high priest jewel.

The chapter will recess through July and August.

HAS JUMP AT FEED TIME

Pennsylvania Holstein Calf Born with Two Mouths.

By The Associated Press

ANNVILLE, Pa., June 10—A Holstein calf on the nearby farm of Harvey Sweigert has a head start on the other animals when eating time rolls around—it has two mouths.

The calf, born Sunday, has almost two complete heads. Each head has a nose, mouth and two eyes but only one ear. The heads are joined together where the respective left and right ears normally would be.

Sweigert said the animal is able to take nourishment in both mouths at the same time.

House Committee Calls Housing Plans "Failure"

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 11—The house appropriations committee declared today the federal public housing authority has "failed miserably" to meet its purpose.

It said more than 31 per cent of all public housing, intended for low income tenants, is occupied by persons who make more money than the maximum permissible or are otherwise ineligible.

"The FPHA," it said, "has taken virtually no action to rectify this situation."

The committee said a provision of the U. S. housing act which called for the elimination of one slum dwelling unit for every dwelling unit built by the government "has been almost completely ignored and the slums have continued to develop and grow."

Society Hears Talk By Rev. Matherlee

Rev. Dennis Matherlee, pastor of the Silver Street Wesleyan Methodist church, was guest speaker Friday at the meeting of the Marion County Old Age Pension society held in the Eagles hall. For this subject he chose "A Lost Opportunity" citing the case of Lot's wife as an example. He compared the world today with the conditions then and urged all to take advantage of the opportunity offered and live a better life.

The meeting was opened with the group singing "America" followed by the opening prayer by Frank Berry. Program included the salute to the flag, songs by the choir, "That Will Be Glory" and "Love Lifted Me," a reading by Mrs. Grace Hann, "Living the Way We Pray," songs by a trio, Rose Seiter, William Sergent and Christian Ruth, with Mrs. Eva Parish playing the accompaniment. Accordion numbers by Mrs. Raymond Donough included "In the Shadow of the Cross" and "The Christ of the Human Road" followed by Mr. and Mrs. Troy Coats singing "Goodbye Old World I Am Through" and "Leave It There" and playing their own guitar accompaniment.

Following the meeting luncheon was served by the W.C.T.U. committee.

Plane To Attempt Trip Without Aid from Crew

By The Associated Press

LONG BEACH, Calif., June 11—A four-engine Army transport plane heads for Wilmington, O., today on the longest "pushbutton" flight ever attempted—2,000 miles without aid for its 11-man crew.

Capt. T. J. Wells, in charge of the flight, said the plane is equipped with sufficient instruments, when pre-set, to take the craft aloft, put it on a course via Denver and Cincinnati, and set it down safely at the AAF's flying center at Wilmington.

He estimated the trip would consume from eight to nine hours and said he and his 10 companions would observe and study conditions encountered. The takeoff was set for noon Pacific standard time (3 p. m. EST).

Postmaster-General Reported Buying Cards

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., June 11—The Columbus Dispatch said today that "Postmaster-General Robert Hannegan and associates may soon own the world champion St. Louis Cardinals and the vast chain of farm clubs that includes the Columbus Red Birds and the Rochester Red Wings."

The newspaper said it had learned from an unquestionably reliable source that "the deal between the Hannegan syndicate and owner Sam Breadon has progressed into its final stages."

Cy Young's Home Town Lays Off To Attend Ball Game

By The Associated Press

NEWCOMERSTOWN, O., June 11 — Every place of business except the weekly newspaper and two banks closed today as fellow townsmen of Denton True (Cy) Young declared a holiday and went to a baseball game in honor of the world's greatest winning pitcher.

"You can't even buy a bite to eat," said Editor Charles Phillips of the News-Index.

A 15-car Pennsylvania train carrying 800 of the town's 3,000 residents pulled out for Cleveland at 8:10 a. m. Virtually all the rest of the inhabitants went by automobile.

Approximately 4,000 passes were issued by Bill Veeck, president of the Cleveland Indians, to Tuscarawas county folk for today's Cleveland-Boston game in honor of the 80-year-old Young.

Aboard the train, whose rear observation car carried a big picture of Young, was the 80-piece Newcomerstown High school band.

The band mothers took along 2,000 ham and cheese sandwiches and 150 cases of pop.

Even the manufacturing plants closed for the occasion, the workers electing to work on Saturday to make up for their day off.

One of the town's policemen remained here, supported by two state highway patrolmen.

Columbus Physician On Academy Program

Dr. Roy Krigbaum of Columbus was a guest speaker at a meeting of the Marion County Academy of Medicine Tuesday night at Hotel Harding. His subject was "Early Diagnosis of Cancer in Women." Dr. R. C. Campbell was welcomed as a new member.

CONDITION IMPROVING

Mrs. Presler Throckmorton of 144 South Seffner avenue, who underwent an operation for tumor on the brain Monday, June 2, at White Cross hospital in Columbus, is reported to be "improving slowly but her condition is still serious." This report was received today from her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mildred Sidenstricker of Marion.

Mr. Throckmorton is staying in Columbus while his wife is in the hospital. Mrs. Throckmorton was secretary to C. E. Jennings, manager of the W. T. Grant Co. store.

HURT ON FLATTOP

PHILADELPHIA, June 11—Seventeen workmen and crew members of the 27,000 ton aircraft carrier Valley Forge were scalded today when a broken steam line flange flooded the ship's No. 3 fireroom with steam, the Navy public relations office reported.

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Rennel Concentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonsful twice a day. That's all there is to it.

In the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose bulky fat and help regain slender, more graceful curves; if reducible pounds and inches of excess fat don't just seem to disappear almost like magic from neck, chin, arms, bust, abdomen, hips, calves and ankles, just return the empty bottle for your money back. You don't have to starve yourself; eat sensibly per instructions on bottle. Follow the easy way endorsed by many who have tried this plan and help bring back alluring curves and graceful slenderness. Note how quickly bloat disappears—how much better you feel. More alive, youthful appearing and active.

MRS. GEORGE R. CHAMBERS

Orton, Chambers Vows Spoken In Church Wedding

A DOUBLE ring ceremony read Sunday, June 8, in the Salem Evangelical and Reformed church united in marriage Miss Mignon Orton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Orton of 193 South Prospect street, and George R. Chambers, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Primmer of Columbus. The couple repeated their vows at 2:30 o'clock and the pastor, Rev. Emil C. Klutey, officiated.

Preceding the ceremony, a half-hour program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. M. Crandall, organist, with Miss Donna Varner, a classmate of the bride, as soloist. Miss Varner sang "I Love You Truly," "Always," and "To Each His Own."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a street length dress of white celanese with which she combined a white hat with a short bridal veil, and matching mitts. She wore a gold cross, a gift from the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of pink roses. Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. R. B. Croman of Marion. She wore a yellow linen street-length dress with a white hat and mitts, and carried orchid colored baby gladiolis.

Serving as best man was Robert B. Croman, brother-in-law of the bride, and ushers were Richard Jerew and Rudi Rech of Marion, cousins of the bride. The candles were lighted by Miss Marilyn Orton and Miss Phyllis Ann Jerew, sister and cousin of the bride. Their dresses were pink and aqua and they wore corsages of sweet peas.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Orton chose a blue crepe dress with which she combined while accessories. Mrs. Primmer was attired in a blue and pink jersey dress with while accessories. Each wore a corsage of gardenias.

A reception for about 75 friends and relatives at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony. A five-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom centered the table. Serving were Miss Virginia Howard and Miss Suzann Price. Upon their return from a wedding trip to the Smoky Mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Chambers will reside in Columbus.

Mrs. Chambers, a graduate of Harding High school with the class of 1944, is a student nurse at White Cross hospital in Columbus. She will be graduated from nurses training in September. Mr. Chambers attended West High school in Columbus and served eight years in the U. S. Navy, receiving his discharge Sept. 14, 1945 with the rating of boatswain's mate second class. He is now in the welding business in Columbus.

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Balterger and daughter, Irene, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Lehman and daughter, Carrol, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lay, Miss Dorothy Hawkinson, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Morgan, Miss Suzann Price, Miss Donna Varner, Miss Charlotte Booth, Richard Shark, and Robert Busick, all of Columbus, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander of Green Camp.

GARDEN CLUB MEMBERS GOING TO STATE SESSION

17th Annual Convention Scheduled in Columbus.

Members of the Marion Garden club will join others of the state in the 17th annual convention of the Ohio Association of Garden club Thursday and Friday at Columbus.

The convention will get under way Thursday with registrations at 9:30 a. m. at the Seneca hotel, where headquarters will be established. A feature of the convention will be special exhibits in addition to a garden clinic and tour.

Speakers will include Henry Pree, landscape architect, of Cleveland, Miss Virginia Cavendish, landscape architect of Huntington, W. Va. Miss Anne B. Wertsner, field secretary, Pennsylvania Horticultural Society and Mrs. Frank E. Garry of Montgomery, O.

The president's dinner will be held in the hotel ballroom Thursday evening at 7 o'clock with Mrs. Thomas M. Wolfe, state president, speaking briefly and introducing the speaker of the evening, Karl Maslowski of the National Audubon society who will chose as his topic "Saguaroland, Arizona."

The convention will close with the garden tour following a noon luncheon on Friday.

Weddings

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Schott of 590 East Church street was the scene of the wedding Tuesday evening of their daughter, Mrs. Alice Calmer of 152 Chicago avenue, to M/Sgt. Jerry Baker, of Tilton General Hospital, U. S. Army, Ft. Dix, N. J. The couple repeated their vows at 7:30 o'clock before the fireplace banked with garden flowers. Rev. Henry Maag, pastor of Prospect Street Methodist church officiated, and only the immediate family attended.

A reception was held following the ceremony. The bridal cake was served from a table decorated in the bride's chosen colors of yellow and aqua and lighted with tapers. Bouquets of flowers were placed throughout the rooms.

Mrs. Baker was formerly employed as a nurse at the Marion Engineer Depot. M/Sgt. Baker recently returned from Ojima, Japan, where he was stationed with the First Calvary Division Artillery.

CORRECTION

In a report of a meeting of the What-So-Ever circle of King's Daughters which appeared in The Star Tuesday night, it was incorrectly given that a committee named would serve as co-chairmen to the newly elected president. The three persons named will serve as co-chairmen on the program committee. They are Miss Mabel Wheatley, Mrs. R. H. Kester and Mrs. O. C. Alspaugh. Mrs. Cecil Davis will serve as music chairman.

In Nurse Class

Miss Annette Fazio, (above) daughter of Mrs. Joseph Fazio of 384 Forest street, was graduated from the School of Nursing at St. Luke's hospital, Cleveland, Monday, May 26. The commencement exercises for the 61 graduates, held in the Prentiss Auditorium of St. Luke's hospital, was attended by her mother, brothers and sisters.

A graduate of Harding High school with the class of 1943, Miss Fazio entered St. Luke's hospital in September 1944.

For the present, she will remain on duty at St. Luke's hospital.

Personal Mention

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Shipley and children Ann and Robert of Champaign, Ill., are visiting at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Shipley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Shipley of 225 Edgewood drive and Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Elliott of 264 South State street. Over the weekend Mr. Shipley will attend the national conference of schools of design which is to be held in Cleveland Thursday, Friday and Saturday with the Cleveland Schol of Art as host. At Friday's session Mr. Shipley will be one of the speakers in a panel discussion on industrial art. He is assistant professor in charge of industrial design in the University of Illinois school of art at Champaign.

Colonel Leslie E. Jacoby, who has been stationed with the U. S. Army in Europe, and his family arrived recently in the States and are visiting his parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Jacoby of the Neidhart road. He attended the Marion schools and is a graduate of West Point Military academy.

Club Entertained Near Richwood

Mrs. O. C. Young of near Richwood was hostess recently to members of the Carpe Diem club. Mrs. A. J. Loudenslager led devotions followed by members responding to the roll call by giving their respective fathers' names. Miss Louise Hinamon conducted the program which included songs by the group, a Russian quiz, conducted by Mrs. Loudenslager, a reading, "How We Hunted the Mouse" by Miss Hinamon; a poem read by Mrs. Loudenslager and a play, "Company Coming" by Mrs. C. M. Peterson.

A gift box from Mrs. Rudolph Risch was won by Mrs. Margaret Mather followed by a grab bag contest.

Guests included Mrs. Matt Pacha of Richwood, Mrs. Mather, Nancy Lou Tower and Gilbert Herr Jr. Mrs. C. M. Peterson will entertain at the next meeting.

Curbstone Sawbones Vends Blood Pressures

By HAL BOYLE
Associated Press Writer

LOS ANGELES, June 11—I've had a chance to buy a wife in Belgium and a cobra in California.

The man in Belgium once wanted to teach me how to be a swimming pool salesman; a man in Budapest said he would make my fortune if I would get him a jarfull of saccharine — he wanted to grind it up and sell it for dope.

Hal Boyle

I suppose I can mention right here too that my wife is currently negotiating with a financially - strapped lady rider in New York for the purchase of half a saddle horse. Whether we get the half north or south of the saddle is as yet unspecified in the contract.

Traveling around you get all sorts of odd propositions.

But this is the first place where a man ever offered to take my blood pressure for a quarter.

Operates Sidewalk Stand

He was Dr Joseph G Caicedo, a pleasant dark-faced little man who operates a sidewalk blood-pressure-taking shop on South Hill street. It is near the subway terminal where trolley cars take off for the communities ringing Los Angeles. Now tired businessmen instead of trotting off to a bar for a bracer, can drop in and have their blood pressure taken before hurling out to their little white ranch houses in the suburbs.

The shop is slightly larger than a telephone booth, and smaller than a nearby shoe shine stand. It holds a chair, a nail—and Dr Caicedo.

I hung my coat on the nail, sat down in the chair, and the doctor—professional-looking as Dr Kildare in his white jacket, gave me the business with his baumanometer, the standard gadget.

Gets Disappointed Look

When he had finished pumping in air and reading the dials, he gave me a disappointed look.

'You have a systolic pressure of 106 and a diastolic pressure of 72—that's too low,' he said. I could tell from his tone that he thinks people with high blood pressure are more interesting.

'With low blood pressure like that you just feel tired and indifferent to work,' he said. I forked over 35 cents—a dime extra—for getting this respectable scientific term for what friends have been calling lifelong laziness.

I asked Dr Caicedo why he was limiting himself to sidewalk blood pressures when there was more money to be made with bedside gallstones and other interesting ailments. The little physician's face fell—and I suppose his systolic pressure dropped a few points, too.

Flunks California Exam

"I got my medical degree from New York university and did interne work in Brooklyn," he said, 'but when I came out here and took an exam to practice in California I flunked in histology.

"So I decided to take blood pressures to keep me going until the time comes for the next exam. It's my own idea. This is the only shop of this kind I know. It's quite legal."

He gets from 30 to 50 clients a day, and many come back regularly. He said that only about two out of every one hundred people he has tested have normal blood pressures. Most are high.

That doesn't mean a majority of Southern Californians are racing their heart valves. It just indicates that most of the people who drop in for a checkup have an abnormal condition.

Dr Caicedo said one young woman who comes to him has a blood pressure of 260 and an older women has one of 275. I asked him whether either would get well.

"I am not always sure they will be back," he said. 'But I only take the blood pressure."

Moose Lodge Hears Convention Reports

Announcement was made of a meeting of the Moore legion tonight and also of a district legion meeting June 15 at Mansfield at a meeting of Marion Lodge No 889, Loyal Order of Moose, Monday night.

Two candidates were balloted on and accepted and reports of the state convention held last week at Canton were given by Don Phelps, past governor, A G Myers, secretary and Ralph Klingel, delegates. K D. Whiteman and J. C Slagel also attended the convention and the former reported on a meeting of the "25" club.

William Toole, auditor from Mooseheart, announced he had completed his audit of the books of the lodge and reported the lodge in good standing. Announcement was made of softbial games between the lodge team and Standard Oil team tonight and the Tong Implement team on Friday night. The Gallon degree team will confer the initiatory work on a class of candidates at the next meeting in one week.

Grade Crossing Fund Application Delayed

Completion and filing of Marion's application to the federal works agency for grade crossing planning funds has been temporarily postponed pending receipt of additional information from Pennsylvania and C & O railroad company engineers, according to Floyd Browne, chairman of the grade crossing committee of the Marion Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Browne reports that letters have been received from engineers of both companies stating additional plans and cost estimates for the joint project will be forwarded to city authorities possibly within the next six weeks.

Organisms Frozen Thousands Of Years Revived by Soviets

By EDDY GILMORE
Associated Press Writer

MOSCOW, June 11—Soviet scientists next month will resume first hand investigation of some of the oldest things in the world—frozen millennium micro-organisms from deep in the ground above the arctic circle.

Disclosing this, the Moscow News said "a fascinating prospect of delving back tens and perhaps hundreds of thousands of years into the history of life on earth and reviving flora and fauna today extinct is unfolded by anabiosis research at Vorkuta frigid zone experiment station."

That certain of the simplest species of bacilli, fungi and algae with insignificant water content from one to three per cent may retain vitality over a period of many thousands of years upon freezing had been definitely established by Soviet biologist and geographer P. N. Kapterev before the war when he revived 40 species of algae, dozens of species of bacteria, one species of fly and even one of the simplest varieties of crustacea.

From the depth at which they were found in frigid soil it is estimated that some of the bacteria had been in a frozen state from 30,000 to 40,000 years. Recently another of the state's researchers, A. V. Kalyaev, a pupil of Kapterev, succeeded in resuscitating an additional number of the simplest micro-organisms.

Next to be cleared up is the time span after which micro-organisms in the frozen state no longer can be revived and what other species can retain vitality in such a state. Since the time span runs into millenniums, the answer to this question can be sought only in the colossal laboratory nature provided in frigid soils, although man has been able to reproduce the phenomenon fully in recent experiments which showed certain spores do not lose vitality even when submerged in liquid helium at temperatures as low as 71 degrees below zero centigrade.

The pioneer in this field of anabiosis research was Professor Omelyansky who created a sensation in scientific circles the world over when he revived bacilli removed from the nasal cavity of a fully preserved mammoth that was unearthed in 1902 in frigid soil along the Berezovka river in northeastern Siberia where it was estimated to have lain buried for 15,000 to 20,000 years.

Incidentally, this mammoth, which subsequently was stuffed to put on exhibit in the U.S.S.R. science academy's museum of zoology in Leningrad, is the only find of a fully preserved prehistoric animal in the world.

Ulcer Patients

Ulcer patients who like to smoke will be glad to know of a study which indicates that tobacco may not be so harmful in ulcer as was formerly supposed.

Of course, smoking to excess will be harmful to anyone, and particularly to an ulcer patient, but at the same time, the findings made by Dr. R. A. Jamieson and his co-workers of Glasgow, Scotland, show that it may not be necessary to ban smoking altogether in cases of this kind.

The exact cause for ulcer is not known, but the symptoms it causes are clearly defined. Usually grouped together under the heading dyspepsia, they include such things as pain, coming on one to three hours after meals, sickness to the stomach and, sometimes, vomiting.

Dr. Jamieson studied 473 persons between the ages of 20 and 64 years to determine the relationship between smoking habits and the severity of such symptoms. All patients in the group had suffered acute perforation of a peptic ulcer from one to five years previously.

A casual investigation of findings of these physicians indicated that light cigaret smokers were likely to be free of symptoms, and heavy smokers to have more severe symptoms.

On the other hand, it was found that pipe smoking was often associated with mild symptoms. However, older patients tend to have milder symptoms than younger ones and it was the older patients who smoked pipes while the younger ones used cigarets. In other words, the study of the statistics suggested that cigaret smokers with ulcer tend to have severe symptoms because they are young, and that pipe smokers tend to have mild symptoms because as a general rule the pipe smokers are old.

If smoking were harmful to patients with peptic ulcer, it would be possible to show that their symptoms would become less severe if they reduced the amount of smoking that they do. However, this was not found to be the case. Furthermore, it was not noted that increased pipe smoking was harmful to the patient.

Let me say again that smoking to excess may be harmful to anyone. Furthermore, it should be emphasized that the amount of smoking a sick person does should be determined by his physician. There are so many elements to be considered that only a doctor is competent to decide whether smoking will be harmful in the individual case.

DAIRY CO. EXECUTIVE TALKS TO ROTARY

Upper Sandusky Man Tells of Industry's Operations.

L. J. Spellerberg, manager of the Chief Dairy Co. of Upper Sandusky and president of the Ohio Dairy Producers' association, was guest speaker when Rotary club met for its weekly luncheon at Hotel Harding Tuesday. Mr. Spellerberg's talk was part of the club's observance of National Dairy Month.

June, he explained, is the peak month for dairy production. Last year the total value of milk produced on American farms amounted to 32 billion dollars, according to Mr. Spellerberg, who pointed out that 67 per cent of the money spent by milk consumers goes to the farmer.

Guests for the meeting were M. E. Mohr of Ventura, Calif., P. M. Ardrey of London, O., Carl Albrecht of Haines City, Fla., Walter Kelsey and Richard Isaly of Marion.

"UNBLOCK" your DIGESTIVE TRACT
And Stop Dosing Your Stomach With Soda and Alkalizers

Don't suppose to get real relief from headaches, sour stomach, gas and bad breath by taking soda and other alkalizers if the true cause of your trouble is constipation.

In this case, your real trouble is not in the stomach at all, but in the intestinal tract where 80% of your food is digested. And when the lower part gets blocked food may fail to digest properly.

What you want for real relief is something to "unblock" your lower intestinal tract, thus enabling it to work effectively—help Nature get back on her feet.

Get Carter's Pills right now. Take as directed. They gently and effectively "unblock" your digestive tract. This provides all 3 of Nature's own digestive juices to mix better with your food. You get genuine relief from indigestion as you feel really good again.

Buy Carter's Pills today. "Unblock" your intestinal tract for real relief from indigestion.

Road Jinx Continues To Haunt Bruins as Lima Terriers Triumph 16-12

Cubs Get 15 Hits but Tumble, Same Teams Play Here Tonight

The road jinx continued to haunt the Marion Cubs and they lost at Lima last night 16-12 as poor pitching and erratic fielding could not be overcome by 15 hits.

Manager Burbrink was still absent from the lineup sitting out the suspension by league President Colley

Southpaw Jim Sabens started for the Cubs and struckout seven men in the early innings but the Terriers drove him out with a big rally in the sixth inning in which 12 men went to bat. The roof also fell in on Bill Rosin in the seventh when the Terriers tallied five runs for their big lead Frank Smith came in and stopped Lima the rest of the route.

The Cubs took a 5 to 3 lead in the top of the fourth but Lima tied it up in the botom half. The Cubs then took a 6-5 advantage to see it vanish in the big sixth

Marion, ever fighting tried desperately in the ninth by scoring three runs and leaving men on base driving starter Voss from the found.

The two teams, due to a peculiar schedule, will return to Marion to play at Lincoln park tonight Either Manager Nelson Burbrink or John Edington will do the pitching chores for the Cubs.

The game will follow the Lima-Marion Legion game which will start at 6 and must be finished by 7 30

4-Hit Pitching Puts Zanesville Back in Stride

By The Associated Press

Zanesville's Dodgers were back in the winning stride again today after thumping second place Newark, 10-4, last night behind the four-hit pitching of Sandy Lambert

The Dodgers gained on third place Dayton and fourth place Richmond who managed to break even in doubleheaders Marion the league's only other squad boasting .500 or better, lost a 16-12 slugfest at Lima

The Roses from Richmond dropped an 8-0 contest to their Hoosier neighbors, Muncie, then came from behind to win the nightcap which was a play-off of a Memorial day game halted in the sixth inning because of light failure

Leading 4-0 when the lights went out on May 30 the Roses fell behind 5-4 moments after the contest resumed last night But the Packers blew up in the seventh to give Richmond two unearned runs for a 6-5 victory

Dayton dropped its opener to Springfield 6-5 in a game marked by homers by the Indians' Georgie Ault and the Giants' Carl Hostet The Tribe bagged four runs in the seventh inning of the abbreviated nightcap to repay the Giants in kind, 6-5

What's Bruin?

The loss to Lima last night on the Terriers' grounds gave the Cubs an unenviable record of 13 straight defeats in games away from Lincoln park

The local took the first two games of the season on the road and have not won on foreign fields since

They have lost five at Zanesville, two at Lima, two at Newark, two at Richmond and two at Dayton. They have yet play at Muncie However they were rained out in the fourth inning in the Indiana city when they were trailing 7 to 0 Neither have they played in Springfield

• • •

In games here, the Cubs have an excellent record of 16 wins while tasting the bitter dregs but five times.

They have defeated Lima here three times while losing none, Muncie once without a loss, Newark three times while losing two, and a like record with Springfield. They have split a pair here with Richmond and have taken four without defeat with Dayton and won the only game played with Zanesville here.

A play which the hustling players of Nelson Burbrink have worked to perfection lately, starts as an early double steal play With Cub runners on first and third and the pitcher holding the ball in front of him while touching the rubber, the runner on first breaks for second on an early steal.

On most of the times in which the play has been tried a balk has been called on the pitcher for one of the 13 violations a hurler can make on the mound

A proper defense for the play requires the pitcher to step off the rubber with his contact foot FIRST and then throw the ball anywhere he chooses

However the young and inexperienced pitchers in the league have not learned to do that yet and the play has worked on five straight occasions, allowing the runner on third to score and the runner on first to go to second If the balk is called the runner that started to run before the balk gets credit for a stolen base

MANAGER BURBRINK'S SUSPENSION LIFTED

Cub Pilot Returns from Banishment After 2 Days.

The suspension of Manager Nelson Burbrink was lifted today, Frank M Colley, league president, informed Judge W Dexter Hazen yesterday afternoon

Burbrink was suspended Monday for what umpires McGowan and Staley termed 'delaying tactics' in the game with Dayton last Friday night A fine of $50 also was added to the two days set down

The suspension followed a protest filed by Ival Goodman, Dayton manager

Burbrink had protested McGowan's decisions on balls and strikes with rain threatening and Dayton leading 4-0 in the fourth inning

A downpour of rain followed a few minutes after Burbrink was banished from the game which had to be called

Eldon Auker, Tiger Pitcher of Golden Era, Here Tonight

Eldon Auker, who pitched for Detroit when Mickey Cochrane Bobo Newsome and Charlie Gehringer were with that club, will be on hand at tonight's Legion baseball game

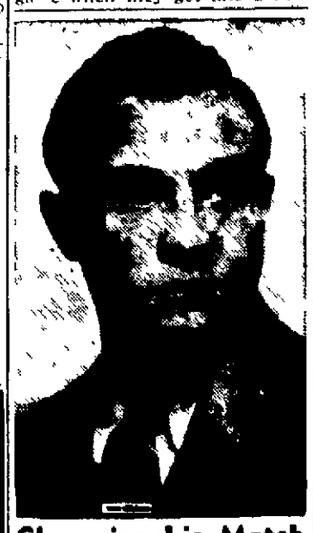
He quit baseball in the prime of his career to go into business in Detroit Ford representatives are bringing Auker as their guest

Ford's sales promotion manager and representative in charge of the junior baseball program, R C Purdy also will attend

Other Ford officials who will be at the game are Duncan Ross, Ford Motor Co representative for the Dearborn district and Carl McGiffen from the Ford sales and advertising department.

Several baseballs autographed by Babe Ruth and Henry Ford II have been obtained by Ralph Shick of Marion Lincoln-Mercury Sales and will be awarded to Marion players as prizes

Yesterday afternoon the American Legion team played a practice game with the Blue Birds at Harding field. Although they lost 4-2, the team showed some stuff against the older, more experienced boys, and played a tight game when they got into a hole



Championship Match Thursday

Marion grapple fans are in for a big evening Thursday at the Armory when Promotor Fishbaugh presents a double main event card with a championship match. In the one ninety-minute match Billy Rayburn, the new American junior heavyweight champ, will put his gold belt at stake against the rough tactics of Monty LaDue. This will be LaDue's big chance and it will give the Marion fans a chance to see what the champ can do against a rough hombre like Monty

The other ninety minute match is packed full of action and color for it brings together the Red Devil and Ali Pasha, the bearded Hindu. To date the Red Devil hasn't lost a match but Pasha's sleeper hold may put an end to this.

A tag team match will be the opener at 8 30 between the team of Frank Sloat-Bill Bean and the team of Don Millsot-Don Davenport Be sure to call Minkett & Lewis early for your best ringside, no advance in prices —Adv.

"One Down, Six To Go," New Battle Cry of St. Louis Cardinal Team

By The Associated Press

"One down and six to go!" was the new St. Louis Cardinal battle cry today.

"We've just about found ourselves,' St Louis Manager Eddie Dyer jubilantly exclaimed last night after the world champion Redbirds excavated themselves after 51 consecutive days in the National league basement

The Cards' long awaited rise came about when they defeated the Phillies in Philadelphia 8-3 in a night game to move into seventh place a game ahead of the Pittsburgh Pirates who lost to the Giants in New York 3-2

However, the Cards still were seven and a half games from first place as the front running Giants opened up a one game lead on the field with a thrilling 12-inning victory over the Pirates

Third baseman Billy Rigney was the Giant hero as the bespectacled third baseman knocked in all his team's runs including the deciding marker in the 12th with a squeeze bunt that scored Lloyd Gearhart from third base He homered in the fifth with Buddy Kerr on base

The Dodgers lost undisputed possession of the runner-up spot by splitting a doubleheader with Cincinnati, winning the second game 6-5 after losing the opener 3-1. Boston caught the Brooks by nipping the Cubs 2-1.

The New York Yankees defeated the Chicago White Sox 5-3 while Detroit was being outslugged 9-8 by the Philadelphia Athletics, Boston nosing out the Cleveland Indians 3-2 and the St. Louis Browns dumped the Washington Senators to the cellar, 2-1

Red Sox Use Ex-Indian To Whip Cleveland, 3-2

By The Associated Press

CLEVELAND, June 11—An ex-Cleveland Indian, the Boston Red Sox' Joe Dobson, combined with the out of Bobby Doerr last night to tumble the Tribe into fifth place in the American league standings.

Holding the Indians hitless until Ken Keltner rapped a single in the fifth, Dobson fired in the seventh frame as the Champion Red Sox handed the Indians their second straight loss, 3-2.

Eddie Robinson's fifth homer of the year highlighted the Tribe's seventh-inning rally as the Redskins came from behind to knot the count 2-2

Doerr delivered a single in the eighth to score Johnny Pesky from third and provide a lead which relief hurler Earl Johnson protected by holding the Tribesmen hitless for two innings at the end of the game

Pecking away at Tribe starter Al Gettel the Red Sox scored in the fourth when Wally Moses singled second on a wild pitch, to third on a long fly and scored on an infield out Rudy York's homer in the seventh gave Boston a 2-0 margin.

Repeating a recent formula, the Tribe rallied to tie the score on Manager Lou Boudreau's double and Robinson's four-bagger into the right field stands in the bottom half of the seventh

In the eighth, Pesky led off with a single, moved to second on a base to third on a long fly and scored the winning run on Doerr's single

Red Embree was nominated by Boudreau in an attempt to salvage the final game of the series today against the Red Sox rookie Mel Parnell

Bums Glad "Red Menace" Leaving Flatbush Scene

BROOKLYN, June 11 — The Dodgers are thankful this is the last day in town for the Red Menace

That's what Brooklyn is calling the Cincinnati Redlegs after being deprived of the National league leadership by dropping two of three games to the Rhinelanders

Brooklyn came from behind to nip the Reds 6-5 in the nightcap of yesterday's twin bill but Cincinnati's 3-1 victory in the opener was enough to dump the Dodgers into a second place tie with Boston

Ewell Blackwell, the Reds classy right-hander, was the hero of the first game Doling out hits he notched his eighth triumph of the year and second the Dodgers

Ralph Branca kept place the stylish stringbean for five innings, hurling hitless ball, but Brooklyn error, a double and triple were good for two unearned runs in the sixth

Blackwell missed a shutout the ninth when a single and double produced Brooklyn's run

The Dodgers, trailing 5-4 as they came to bat in the nightcap eighth, tied the count on Jackie Robinson's homer and then pushed over the winning marker on walk and a double.

The Reds send Elmer Riddle against Brooklyn today for finale of the series. Rex Barney will be on the hill for the Dodgers

Legion Baseball Launcher Gets Under Way Tonight

Revived American Legion junior baseball returns to Marion today at Lincoln park at 6 p. m.

The junior team will launch its season against a Lima Legion team. Following that contest, Marion and Lima will meet in an Ohio State league game.

First in 7 Years

This will be the first time in seven years that the American Legion program for baseball for Marion youth has functioned. The program had been a wartime casualty.

Approximately 4,000 persons are expected to attend. Tickets will be on sale at the box office.

Harry Schaffer of Cincinnati, field secretary of the American Legion junior baseball program, and Gail Baldwin of Marysville, sixth Ohio district commander of the American Legion, also will attend.

Bird-McGinnis post 162 of American Legion in Marion and Marion Lincoln-Mercury Sales are sponsoring the program.

Nelson Irvin, head coach, assisted by Don Kay, Larry Larson and Ted Anderson, has named the following starting lineup.

Doug Knisley, catcher; Bob Ralston, first base; Jim Rea, second base; Dick Thomas, shortstop; Jim Hill, third base; Bill Mathias, Dick Riddle and Dick Huddle, outfielders.

Jack Owens will pitch.

Ohio State league umpires Monroe and Norris will officiate.

Fans who arrive early will be treated to a performance by the Harding band, starting at 5:30.

SIX FOILED IN JAIL BREAK AT MANSFIELD

By The Associated Press

MANSFIELD, O., June 11—Six Ohio reformatory inmates sat in solitary confinement today awaiting prison court hearings Monday on an unsuccessful escape attempt.

Two of the men seized a ladder yesterday, scaled the 30-foot east wall and jumped to freedom, but were recaptured before they had run 130 yards. Guard W. R. Nestle in the east tower thought at first they had been assigned to do some repair work but sounded the alarm when Everett Welling and George Poppick, two 24-year-old Lucas county prisoners serving armed robbery terms, vaulted over the wall. The other two would-be fugitives never got to the top of the ladder.

Supt. Arthur Glattke identified the four with Welling and Poppick as Joe Miller, 24, also sentenced from Lucas county on an armed robbery conviction; James Brown, 23, from Belmont county for burglary; John Pastuzha, 22, from Jefferson county for auto theft, and Lawrence Rivera, 18, from Montgomery county for auto theft.

Glattke said the six saw the ladder lying against the power plant wall where it had been left by workmen of a Columbus firm which is installing diesel motors. They set it against the east wall and started climbing.

Six inmates who escaped May 26, kidnapping a guard-instructor, were recaptured within four days.

Moose-Co. M Softball Tilt Tightest Game of Evening

Moose Lodge downed Co. M, 5-3 yesterday in the lightest game of the Commercial softball league.

In the other three games 11 was the winning number. De Molay beat American Legion 11-3, Tong Implement stopped McAllister 11-2, and Schlairet beat Standard Oil 11-2.

Three straight bingles and an error gave Moose a three run lead in the first and they picked up winning runs in the fourth. Terzo and Arcuria led hitters with two for four.

DeMolay had a big second inning in which they scored more than enough to secure their lead. Five hits and a walk sent six runs across the plate.

Kaelber, pitching for Tong, limited McAllister hitters to two hits, fanning seven. Sims had a perfect afternoon as he hit four for four.

Schlairet was led by Creasap, who homered and hit twice in four times at bat, and Reed who got a homer, double, and single in four trips to the plate.

Chinese Accuse Russia Of Aiding Mongol Drive

By The Associated Press

NANKING, June 11 — A Chinese government spokesman, declaring "this is no ordinary frontier incident," charged Russia today with partial responsibility for an Outer Mongolian invasion of China's remote Sinkiang province.

The government instructed its ambassador in Moscow to protest the incident to both the Soviet government and to the Outer Mongolian minister there as the aftermath of a punitive campaign which carried a Mongol cavalry battalion 50 miles into China.

QUIZ MAN WHO SAYS HE SLEW 3 WOMEN

By The Associated Press

FORT WAYNE, Ind., June 11—Detective Captain Alfred Figel said that a 30 year old Kokomo, Ind., factory worker would be questioned further today in connection with the unsolved slayings of three Fort Wayne women in 1944 and 1945 and which, Figel said, he had admitted.

Figel said that Ralph W. Lobaugh was taken into custody Monday night at Kokomo after he appeared at police headquarters and volunteered that he killed two women at Fort Wayne. The officer said after Lobaugh was brought to Fort Wayne he told officers he had killed a third woman.

Figel said Lobaugh implicated himself in the slayings of Anna Kuzeff, 20; Wilhelma Haaga, 38, and Dorothea Howard, 36.

Police Chief Stumpf said that Lobaugh's statement checked with some facts in the slayings of Anna Kuzeff and the Howard woman. However, he said, his admission did not check with the death of the Haaga woman.

MARION AIRLINE HOSTESS HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Miss Barbara Smith in Hospital At Salt Lake City.

Miss Barbara Louise Smith, 22, Marion airlines hostess stationed in Salt Lake City, Utah, suffered injury in an automobile collision early Memorial day. Her injury was fracture of the seventh and eighth vertebrae, she was placed in a cast from hips to neck, and will remain in Salt Lake General hospital another month and a half, her father, Ernest O. Smith of 294 Forest street, has learned.

Having gone to visit Miss Smith, her mother found her in the hospital when she arrived in Salt Lake and is remaining with her

Miss Smith lives with three other United Airlines hostesses in Salt Lake City, and she was on her way home from a sorority dance when the accident happened Seven others were injured in the crash and a 15-year-old girl in the other car was killed.

A graduate of Harding High school here in 1941, Miss Smith has been an airlines hostess about six months and has been in Salt Lake City since August

Galion Mayor Explains Law in Court Case

Special to The Star

GALION, June 10—Three were given hearings in Mayor William Amann's court Monday

Mrs. Arthur Stockwell of Harding Way East was fined $5 00 and costs on a charge of driving without an operator's license, and another $1 and costs for failure to yield right of way to a pedestrian The alleged incident occurred when an elderly lady escaped only by inches being hit by Mrs. Stockwell's car. Using the case as an example, Police Chief James L Walker said that any vehicle making a turn whether they have the green light or not must yield the right of way to pedestrian who has left the curb Motorists he said, proceed on a turn at their own risk

Two other cases in the mayor's court resulted with a fine of $5.00 and costs and suspension of 30-day jail sentence for Harry Latch, and the same fine and sentence for James W. Hurrell of Shelby. Both were heard on drunk and disorderly charges

Kate Smith To Leave CBS Network for MBS

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, June 11 — Kate Smith said at a news conference yesterday she was leaving the Columbia Broadcasting System after 16 years because she could obtain a larger audience and more money with the Mutual Broadcasting System.

Here to accept an American brotherhood award, Miss Smith told newsmen MBS had some 400 radio stations, whereas CBS had around 190 She said her daytime radio show, now produced five days a week over CBS, would switch to Mutual June 23, and that her Sunday program would end on CBS June 29. She will not do a Sunday show next year, she said.

Miss Smith remarked that although CBS had censored some of her scripts, the reason for her switch was to obtain a larger audience and higher salary.

GARSSON ADMITS HE SKIPPED INCOME TAX

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, June 11 — Munitions Maker Henry Garsson acknowledged at his war bribe trial today that he never filed income tax returns for the Cumberland Lumber Company in Kentucky.

But under questioning from government attorneys Garsson stoutly maintained that the company as his own business enterprise and not, as the government contends, a "front" for bribe payments during war years to Andrew J. May, then a Kentucky Democratic congress member.

May has testified he managed the concern but declared he had no financial interest in it.

Garsson said he asked May for data to prepare the tax returns but the wartime chairman of the house military committee never sent it to him.

The 72-year-old May and arms manufacturers Henry and Murray Garsson are on trial together charged with bribe conspiracy.

The government contends the Garssons paid May $55,000, chiefly through the Cumberland firm, for using his influence to get government favors for their $78,000,000 munitions combine.

SHEEP DROWN AFTER CRAWFORD CO. RAIN

Special to The Star

BUCYRUS, June 11—The loss of 52 sheep belonging to a herd owned by M. L. Hord of south of Bucyrus, in the cloudburst which hit the southern part of the county Friday, was made known today. The sheep, 20 ewes and 32 lambs were lost when they were washed down stream after seeking refuge along the bank of the ditch which runs through the Hord farm. Approximately the same number of sheep were saved by Mr. Hord who was assisted by neighbors with teams and wagons, working throughout the night to bring the animals to a place of safety.

The water was three feet deep where the sheep were drowned.

The Hord farm borders on Marion county and Hord blamed the flood on his grounds to the fact that the ditch had been dredged on the Crawford county side but not in Marion county

DILLON

after the disastrous floods of 1913.

The substance of their argument was:

In 1913, Zanesville, flood damage amounted to $4,650,000. If the 14 Muskingum river dams had been completed the damage would have been $400,000; if Dillon dam had been constructed, the damage would have been only $260,000.

In the valley below Zanesville, damage in 1913 totaled $1,043,000; if the 14 Muskingum dams had been there, loss would have been reduced to $296,000; with Dillon dam, there would have been no damage.

Correy disputed McGregor's arguments that the cost of Dillon dam on the basis of current prices exceeds potential benefits.

Present estimates are that the project would cost upwards of $10,000,000.

Correy and Curfey contended that whatever the cost, it would be offset ultimately by protection from floods and assurance of adequate water supplies.

The army engineers have requested $3,400,000 for work on the dam during the year beginning July 1. Nearly $3,000,000 has been appropriated for the job since its authorization several years ago.

Historical Society Convenes at Ashley

ASHLEY—Marlborough Historical society met Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Sherwood of Ashley. Several of the petitions concerning the moving of the Marlborough church and cemetery, were received and it was estimated that there are at least 800 signatures at present. It is desired that all be brought to the next meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Weiser on the Howald road, Sunday, July 6.

FAST-MOVING STOCKS BRING MARKET RALLY

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, June 11—The stock market rallied today in one of its fastest moves of the month.

Industrials gave leadership to the upturn right from the opening, with principal demand centered in chemicals, oils, steels, rubbers, motors and farm implements. Pace of dealings slowed at times but gains ranged to around 2 points near the fourth hour.

Commission houses reported bullish sentiment was aided by some expressions of cautious optimism over the fate of tax reduction legislation and by the stability of the market in the face of foreign disruptions and uncertainty over coal and other labor negotiations.

Prominent gainers included Goodrich, Goodyear, Bethlehem, U. S. Steel, Standard Oil (N.J.) (at a new 1947 high), Montgomery Ward, International Harvester, Coca-Cola, Publicker, Kennecott, J. I. Case, Deere and Co., Douglas Aircraft, Chrysler, General Motors, Santa Fe, Southern Railway, Great Northern Preferred, Du Pont, Allied Chemical, Western Union "A" and American Can. An isolated soft spot was American Telephone.

WINNER VERNA, Uruguay, has huge lead in New York beauty contest. In Miss Universe competition at Palisades, she is pictured with Miss Uruguay, runner-up, and Miss Council of the Virgin Islands, visiting American beauties. Winner will be chosen finally in New York.

LOVE'S PERILOUS PATH

By ADELE GARRISON

FOR a second after I had put my question, Mary stared up at me, her face drained of color until it reminded me of old parchment

Then she put out a groping hand, which I grasped

"Then you know!" she whispered

"Why shouldn't I know?" I retorted "You haven't come out and said so explicitly, but give me credit for a little commonsense when I listened to the things you did say And I'm telling you now that of all the wild-eyed notions I ever heard, this of yours is craziest!"

"You're just saying that to stave off things for a little while until I can get reconciled," she flung at me "But you can save your breath Do you think I'm going through the torture at least one actor did, trying to remember—depending on cues— writing on slates—and then going into radio where he could read the scripts?"

She caught her breath, and then rushed on, before I could get in a word

"That might do for some," she said "Some who have been at the top and have memories of enough triumphs to hug to their hearts and have grown old But I'm young, and I've only played one role which your marvelous play made fool-proof . . "

Might Have Flopped

"Stop right there!" I commanded "You know very well that without the wonderful rendition you gave of that role, my play might very well have been a flop"

She gave a mocking little laugh

"What a cock-eyed liar you are!" she said "But you're a well-meaning one I'll say that for you But I want you to get me straight My memory's gone I know if I can't remember two consecutive lines And if you think I'm going to stay in this world and watch the rest of my brain die until I'm a gibbering idiot and have to be fed with a spoon like a baby—well, you've got two or three little more thinks coming Not for little Mary, thank you"

With a mighty effort I concealed the terror which gripped me at her words This horrible fear was at the root of her panic She did not contemplate self-destruction because of the loss of memory, but because she believed it was only the first symptom of something infinitely more terrible

Ridiculous Ideas

"If you ask me" I told her, and tried to make my words and tone withering, "I think you're a gibbering idiot now, to think up such ridiculous ideas Even suppose you have lost your memory—which I'd wager a good deal you haven't—that is no reason whatever for you to get into your head the outlandish notion you just have voiced"

She looked at me intently for at least two seconds before she answered me

"Auntie Madge!" she then began "Do you forget—my mother?"

I always shall be proud that I was able to control my facial muscles and those of my body at that reference For I remembered only too well the tragedy of Elizabeth Harrison, Dicky's sister and Mary's mother There had been a twist in her mentality which had found vent in occasional inexplicable and strange cruelties to her children to whom otherwise she was devoted

"She wasn't—quite right, you know," Mary said "And I suppose I've inherited—"

Not An Inherited Trait

"Stop right there!" I told her almost furiously "I never heard such balderdash in my life Some of your mother's actions were queer, I grant you that, and she did have a quirk But it was not an inherited trait It all resulted from something that happened when Roderick was born I never have known just exactly what the story was, but Dicky, his mother and your aunt Harriet all solemnly assured me that there was no inherited taint"

Some of the glitter faded from here eyes, but she was still tense

"You're sure you're not just making this up'" she asked

'Positive,' I answered "But why not ask your Uncle Dicky, if you dont believe me?"

CLUB TO BUY FLAGS

In a recent meeting of the Grand Prairie F F T 4-H club at the home of Mary Alice and Ruth Ella Linn on the Bucyrus road, plans were made to buy a 4-H club flag and an American flag to be used in club work Carolyn Hile and Connie Jones, who are studying baking, showed some biscuits they had made and received grades. Miss Henry Barnard, club advisor gave a demonstration of bound button holes The time was spent in sewing The next meeting is to be June 11 with Connie Jones on the Bucyrus road.

THE UNSEEN AUDIENCE — By H. T. Webster

MYRT, I WANT YOU TO MEET OTTO BROWN HE WRITES SOME OF THOSE SOAP OPERAS YOU'RE SO CRAZY ABOUT
HE WRITES THEM? YOU MEAN TO SAY THEY AIN'T TRUE?

SCOTT'S SCRAP BOOK — By R. J. SCOTT

EGYPTIAN WOMEN WORE FALSE HAIR 5,000 YEARS AGO.
SCRAPS
WHAT IS THE WORLD'S PRODUCTION OF SILK THREAD IN A YEAR?
48,000 tons.
DESCENDANTS OF THE MAYAS STILL HONOR THE STONE IDOL, AN ANCIENT GOD OF THE DAYS BEFORE COLUMBUS DISCOVERED AMERICA.-GUATEMALA

Joe Palooka — By Ham Fish

I JUST GOT A TIP-OFF FROM ONE A THE GUYS AT RINGSIDE THAT THIS GUY PROHASKAS DRAGGIN' HE'LL GET YA WITH HIS FAVRITE TRICK.
HE WAS A RASSLER AN IS POWRFUL AS A BULL IN TH CLINCHES HE'LL TRY SQUEEZIN' TH WIND OUTA YA
AN IN THIS CORNAH TH WORLD'S HEAVY-WEIGHT CHAMPEEN
SO BE AWFUL CAREFUL IN TH' CLINCHES?
RIGHT

Gasoline Alley — By Frank K

HACK, DO YOU MIND IF I BORROW A SMALL FILE AND THAT TINY SET OF WRENCHES?
I THOUGHT THAT CAR OF YOURS WAS IN PERFECT SHAPE, AVERY
OH IT IS' BUT I'VE GOT TO DO SOME WORK ON THE DISTRIBUTOR
I'M NOT ALLOWED TO LEND TOOLS SEE WILLET OR BOBBIE
I'LL HAVE 'EM BACK THE FIRST THING IN THE MORNING
WE'LL HAVE TO CALL A MEETING AND MAKE A REGULATION COME IN TOMORROW

Terry and the Pirates — By George Wunder

O.K., GENERAL. THANKS FOR YOU LET ME KNOW IF YOUR PEOPLE MAKE CONTACT
-BYE.
WELL, IT'S DONE. THE MILITARY ARE ALERTING THEIR AIRCRAFT WARNING SYSTEM AND THEY'RE FITTING SEVERAL FLIGHTS OF FIGHTERS INTO THE AIR. IF THEY SIGHT TERRY'S PLANE, THEY'LL TRY TO CRIPPLE IT ENOUGH TO MAKE A FORCED LANDING NECESSARY
GOLLY PAT! IF THIS ISN'T A GETAWAY TRY BY BONNIE AND THE FAT BOY, WHAT COULD THEY BE UP TO THAT WOULD BE WORTH RISKING TERRY'S NECK TO STOP?
IT COULDN'T BE A GETAWAY— A SMART PAIR LIKE THOSE TWO WOULD HAVE CHOSEN A LESS SPECTACULAR MEANS OF LEAVING STEALING A PLANE AND KIDNAPPING A PILOT CAN ONLY MEAN THAT THEY'RE MAKING THEIR BIG MOVE.. AND IT'S MY JOB TO STOP IT AND IN THE MEANTIME SKY..
YOU WILL KEEP ON OUR PRESENT COURSE BY DAWN WE SHOULD BE APPROACHING THE AREA WHERE WE MAY EXPECT OUR SIGNAL TO BE ANSWERED

The Gumps — By Gus Edso

I'M THE HAPPIEST GIRL, MIN-- WONDERFUL IS SUCH A THOUGHTFUL HUSBAND!
HE WON'T LET ME SEE OUR NEW HOME TILL IT'S RENOVATED AND FURNISHED -- COMPLETE WITH MAID! HE SAYS HE WANTS TO SURPRISE ME--
YOU'LL BE SURPRISED ALL RIGHT!
YOU'VE BEEN IN RETIREMENT SO LONG, I'LL BET YOU MISS THE FOOT LIGHTS, EH, TRIXIE? HOW'D YOU LIKE A PART IN THE PLAY WE'RE, ER- WRITING?
IT'S A MAID'S PART-- THINK YOU CAN PLAY IT?
